OREGON WEATHER: Tonight and Saturday fair; warmer tonight south and east; portions; winds mostly north-erly.

GROWING DEMAND FOR TIMBER.

That there is an awakening demand for the forests of Douglas fir in the west by the industrial activity throughout the country is made plain by the recently recorded sales of large timber holdings.

The district forester at Portland announces a sale just closed for 7,020 acres of timber in the Hood River district at fairly strong figures. The timber, which is medium size, but ripe for cutting, is chiefly Douglas fir, 58,000,000 feet of western hemlock, 18,500,000 feet of amabilis fir, 2,000,000 feet of western red cedar, 5,000,000 feet of noble fir, and 3,500,000 feet of western white pine, a total of 330,000,000.

Crimes such as the wanton killing of cattle in the Applegate district should receive the active attention of the officers. A more dastardly crime can not be placed upon the calendar than taking one's spite out upon the dumb beast.

The city council met in regular session Thursday night, allowed the usual run of bills in liquidation of the expenses of the city, and transacted such routine business as came before it.

New Use for Pine Cones—Forest Supervisor Maeduff has received an inquiry from Los Angeles for cones for Christmas decorations.

SIX MILLION SLAVS ARE LOST IN WAR

Berlin, via Sayville, Oct. 6.—Russia has lost 6,000,000 men during the first two years of the war, and at least 1,250,000 in this year's offensive, according to estimates from Danish sources given out by the semi-official news agency today.

Lloyd-George's prophecy to the United Press that Russia will "fight to the death" is now about to be realized literally, the News Agency commented, since Russian losses in the Galician fighting are again mounting to a figure which even that populous country can not stand.

In the battle at Kortnica, which resulted victoriously for the Germans, Russian columns were driven forward under curtains of fire and whirled. The entire Russian waves fell under German artillery and machine gun fire and dead bodies formed "mountains," the News Agency declared.

The czar's guards were completely wiped out during the bloody fighting near Pustomy and Korytnica, after having suffered heavy losses on the Stochod river.

ALLIES HEADED FOR MONASTIR

London, Oct. 6.—Two allied armies, fighting their way toward Monastir, the Bulgarian base in southwestern Serbia, have defeated the Bulgars in pitched battles, driving them back in disorder.

Southwest of Monastir, French and Russian detachments, having occupied the villages of Buf and Poplir, are pushing their advance toward the Serbo-Greek frontier with the greatest vigor. Allied and Bulgar troops are battling for possession of the hills leading down to Monastir, about eleven miles away.

A Serbian army that crossed the Greek frontier more than a fortnight ago has fought its way to a plateau northwest of Kaimakchalan. The Serbs are now driving northward in attempts to flank the Bulgars out of Monastir.

On the allies' extreme right, in the Struma valley, the British have repulsed successive Bulgarian counterattacks.

Official dispatches from Bucharest today admitted that the Roumanians have retired across the Danube, after making a successful raid on Bulgarian soil, but brought no confirmation of the Bulgarian official report that about 15,000 Roumanian troops were wiped out.

WOMEN'S SPECIAL TRAIN SPEEDS ON

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Pointed into the heart of suffrage territory, the Hughes Women's special train left Chicago today to tour through Illinois and Iowa. The party was joined here by Mrs. Raymond Robins, Mrs. Wm. Severin, of Chicago, and Mrs. Noble Prentiss, of Kansas. Miss Harriet E. Vittum, of Chicago, will join the special Sunday.

The arrival of the special here marked its entrance into suffrage territory and the women took new interest in the campaign. As they left the train at LaSalle street station, Wilson women were on hand with banners and heckling questions, but the Hughes women were hustled away in autos and an opportunity for some interesting repartee was lost.

Street meetings were held last night in front of large industrial plants as workers were leaving, but the noise of traffic and interruptions by Wilson women hampered the speakers.

When the parade of the campaigners was held yesterday, members of the Working Women's Independent Wilson league fell in behind and trailed their opponents through the loop districts. The Hughes women heard former Senator A. J. Beveridge speak here last night.

SUGGESTS BLOCKADE

ing is not to be commended because the Tages Zeitung or some other critics demand it. If, however, any marine officer convinces the general staff, and the latter places the proof before the chancellor, that by using submarines, Zeppelins, the fleet, or anything else, the war could be won, and if the chancellor did not follow this advice, he would deserve to be hanged.

"Germany must win the war. Germany must use the weapons with which she is certain she can win it."

"But Americans believe that if the chancellor were overthrown and succeeded by a representative of the von Tirpitz party, submarining would be recommended, perhaps endangering again good relations between the United States and Germany," he was told.

"The von Tirpitz affair is settled," he answered emphatically. "The explosion now being aired in the press has helped to bury it. The chancellor is not going to be overthrown. The government is not going to undergo any change. Even if a new chancellor would come tomorrow there would be no change in policy."

"The people who are really interested in seeing Germany win realize this."

Bound to Disagree. "You don't get along very well with your mother-in-law, I hear," said a friend to a young husband. "No, I don't," answered the bridegroom. "Nobody can. Even the fool she eats doesn't agree with her. When she comes into the room everybody shuts up. The other day she got into a folding bed, and the bed shut up."

VORACITY OF THE CORMORANT. Fishing with cormorants used to be an English royal sport. The bird's voracity is such that some have wished to spell its name "corvorant," though the true derivation is "corvus marinus," sea crow. The contrast between the cormorant when dining after its prey, as one sees it at the zoo, and when standing, the picture of dull lethargy, must have been present to Milton when he described Satan sitting in the tree of life "like a cormorant."—London Chronicle.
