

Maynard Pianos Are Attractive Instruments

Built along beautiful lines and finely proportioned. Finely finished, fancy figured veneers add to the beauty.

The scale is even throughout, the tone full, round and rich; the action perfectly balanced and regulated, the touch wonderfully responsive. A careful examination will convince you of its pleasing satisfying qualities.

CONFUSION OVER LAND TAX BILL

There seems to be great confusion in the minds of some voters regarding the full rental value land tax and homesteaders' loan fund amendment. It is a most complicated measure. After reading it through one is confused and hardly knows what it is all about.

There need be no confusion about this measure. It is a single tax measure, pure and simple, although a loan feature, has been added. The doctrine of single tax is just this: that all income from land, exclusive of improvements, belongs to the state. "The full rental value land tax and homesteaders' loan fund amendment" does this very thing. It calls the income from land "land rent," and under the amendment all this land rent must be paid each year to the state in the shape of taxes. Do you get the idea? It is just single tax under another name. Under single tax all income from land is taken by the state. In this proposed measure income from land is called "land rent" and all of it is taken by the state.

Mr. Uren, who drew the bill, has repeatedly acknowledged that it is the same old single tax that the voters have repeatedly rejected at the polls. Everyone who has carefully read the bill agrees that it is single tax, but under a different name.

There is no need of any confusion or doubt about this measure. Those who are in favor of single tax and government ownership of all land should vote for this measure. Those who are opposed to single tax and believe in private ownership of all land should vote 307 X No.

Scores of Smart Suits in a Season of Scarcity

Only our close relations with the great Woottex house make it possible to keep our showing of fall suits so varied and complete.

As you know, if you have looked around in the shops, such a choice of styles and such values are even harder to find this year than ever.

As it is, every few days bring new models to us direct from Woottex—and so, in the middle of this busiest of all seasons, your freedom of choice is still unlimited.

These two illustrations will indicate something of the variety to be had—and the choice of fall coats, too, you will find quite as complete.

ASHLAND FOOTBALL TEAM IS COMING

When the Ashland football team journeys upon the local football field next Friday they will find a different team than did Medford. Coach Miller has put the high school team through a week of vigorous working and has re-arranged his players to the best advantage. Last night the "scrubs" were unable to make a showing against the first team, while the week before they could hold them about at a standstill.

During the last contest with Medford two of the Grants Pass players played through half the game although injured. M. Wilkins, who played at tackle, suffered a broken wrist in the first half, but finished the game. Juel Bestul, halfback, played two quarters with a badly wrenched knee.

Several additions will be made to the team, and with the shift in the lineup a really formidable eleven will be put up against Ashland. Mr. Miller has several surprises in stock for the football fans. A number of the second team men are showing up in fine shape and give promise of making the first team this year. These are Calhoun, Voorhies, Kearns and Wolfolt. This is the first year any of these men have reported for football practice, but the coach is optimistic over them.

DESTROYERS FAIL TO FIND WRECK SURVIVORS

Newport, R. I., Oct. 11.—The search by the 11 United States destroyers for survivors of the submarine raid which started early yesterday proved fruitless. Early today Rear Admiral Gleaves and his staff practically gave up hope of finding the crew of the Kingstonian, if such a ship was sunk of Nantucket, as reported.
