Everyone is entitled to his day in court. The demonstration by those Rose City female supporters of Woodrow Wilson Saturday was nothfuz short of a disgrace to the entire state of Oregon. The visitors from the east included some of the most distinguished workers along lines of civic and community upbuilding in the nation. The cause of Wilson has certainly suffered much through the the place, time and magnitude of the action of his partisans.

All the earlier manuscripts were either lost or destroyed in the terrible persecutions which were directed not only against the Christians, but against their treasured sacred writings, their enemies thus hoping to stamp out even existence are known as the Sinaitic. the Alexandrian and the Vatican manu scripts.

The Singitic was found by the eminent Bible scholar Tischendorf in a convent on Mount Sinai in 1844. It contained the Septuagint, other parts

The Alexandrian manuscript, which came to light in 1628, is not quite so ancient as the Smaltic. It has the Old Testament complete, except that ten leaves are missing, and the New Testa ment lacks nearly thirty leaves. It is in the British museum.

The Vatican manuscript, the most ancient of all, is a great treasure, consisting of about 700 leaves of vellum bound in book form. Part of Genesis is missing and also a number of the Psalms The New Testament is com plete up to Hebrews, ninth chapter.

Other early Bible manuscripts of great value, but inferior to the three mentioned, are the Codex Ephraem and the Codex Begae, besides which there is a long list of later manuscripts -Christian Hernld.

THEY SAW THE DOCTOR.

After the Interesting Visit the Physician Also Saw.

A Chleago specialist got, on a certain morning, the card of one of the richest of our western millionaires. He went down instantly and found a well dressed man, who said:

"I am bere, sir, on a delicate and painful matter. My wife is a victim of kleptomania, and, knowing your skill in mental diseases. I have brought her on for treatment under you."

"Bring the lady to see me tomorrow morning." said the physician.

"It will be best not to bring her to your office." faitered the millionaire. "The sight of other patients might excite her. I suggest"

ACTING SUDDEN DEATH.

As Shown in Moving Pictures It is Not True to Nature.

"There is one point on which moving picture directors still have some thing to learn if they desire realism. says the Illustrated World, Chicago "It is on the subject of sudden death Nowadays every film director makes his actors follow what seems to be a stereotyped form Every villata who gets shot dies exactly like every other perforated tharacter-and wrong

Again, the actor, having never experienced personal death in any form. sudden or otherwise, depends upon and imitates the obliquitous interpre tation given by his fellows.

When the blond and sport shirted teading man of the average 'small ime picture is struck on the head with a semnific stocking charged with sawdust or custard or when the vii lain tires off a blank cartridge in his general direction our bero devotes the next few moments to an exhibition of stumbling and face contorting which come perilously near the ridiculous.

"In actuality sudden death is exceedingly rudimentary. There is nelther brow clasping nor staggering, or to an insignificant degree, if any. The man simply stops and dies.

"This does not take into considera tion the wounded man, no matter bow badly be may be burt. When he is in this condition there is no telling just what pitiable contortions the pain of his burts will force him to undergo But there is one peculiar and interesting psychological fact which sea soned warring men are agreed onthe wounded man never has his face turned to the ground. The man who is instantly killed or who succumbs very shortly after being hit almost in variably falls on his face.
