Rich Gold Ore
A. Walker came in from his mines, the California group on Mount Reuben, last Wednesday and brought with him a sample of gold quartz that made those who looked upon it. It is free gold, and ore like the sample would easily run from $50,000 to $65,000 per ton. Judging from this sample, the Mount Reuben district will be a very busy place within a short time.—Glendale News.

Marshmallow and Chocolate Special
At Sabin's tomorrow (Saturday).

FARMERS' CONGRESS MAKES DEMANDS

Indianapolis, Oct. 20.—Resolutions presented to the Farmers' National Congress here today demanded the administration of the farm loan board law for the benefit of farmers of the country, hitting at alleged misuse of the law by grafters; the repeal of the Shields, Myers and Phealan water power bills in the United States senate, declared in favor of woman suffrage, and protested against the increase of freight rates on railroads.

MINE SUPERINTENDENT JONES ASPHYXIATED

Barrackville, W. Va., Oct. 20.—Superintendent Jones of the mine rescue car from Pittsburg was asphyxiated while trying to reach entombed men at Jamison No. 7 mine today.

Hope for the nine or more men believed to be sealed in one of the mine chambers has practically been abandoned. The workings are filled with gas.

All the six bodies taken from the mine early today were those of Americans. John Drummond, electrician, and M. W. Allison, head machinist, were among them. They were directing repair work.

A number of men were injured, none seriously, when the explosion occurred. They were clustered about the shaft and were showered with debris when the gas let go.

FLOUR AND TOOTHPICKS COST MORE IN FRISCO

San Francisco, Oct. 20.—As a result of high wheat prices, flour today is 20 cents a barrel higher in wholesale markets here, which means the retail price of top patent flour is $2.25 a sack.

Even the toothpick is affected by the rising cost of living, with a 25 per cent advance in all coast cities. Five cent boxes, which formerly contained 1,000 picks, now contain 750 post-prandial splinters.

BANDON TIMBERMAN SHOOTS LAWYER AND SELF

Marshfield, Oct. 20.—Joseph Coach, wealthy Bandon timberman, is near death today from a self-inflicted wound in the head. He turned his revolver upon himself after killing G. T. Treadgold, attorney, in the street here last night. Witnesses said not a word was uttered. Coach walked up to Treadgold, drew a revolver, and opened fire.

The men have been enemies for years. Treadgold recently prosecuted Coach in a liquor case. Coach's wife filed a divorce suit October 13, and it is believed Coach thought Treadgold was acting as her lawyer.

ONLY TWO MEMBERS OF ALAUNIA'S CREW LOST

New York, Oct. 20.—All the members of the crew of the Cunard liner Alaunia, which sank yesterday in the English channel after striking a mine, were saved with the exception of two, the New York Cunard office announced today. All passengers were landed at Falmouth before the ship had encountered the mine.

ANIMATED WEEKLY

LELAND

Bob Hamilton and wife, niece of Mrs. E. L. Goff, of Portland, are guests of the E. L. Goff family on a hunting trip, and while here the Goff brothers and Mr. Hamilton got two cub bears.

The surveyors who have been classifying the O. & C. land have been busy in this vicinity, leaving here Monday for Glendale, where part of them will make camp for a while.

James McCumber, Mrs. Amy Klum and daughter, Edith, were visitors in Grants Pass Monday.

The Sewing club met with Mrs. H. O. Williams last Saturday. A pleasant time was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess. The club will meet with Mrs. John McCaslin Saturday, November 4.

T. J. Mackin, J. R. Mackin, John McCaslin and wife made a business trip to Grants Pass Monday.

Fred Klum, wife and children, of Portland, arrived Tuesday to visit the former's sister, Mrs. Geo. Strong, and other relatives.

E. S. Ellis, of Kennett, Cal., arrived Sunday morning and made a short visit with his brother, Link, returning Monday evening.

D. W. Pugh, of Salem, has been hunting in this vicinity for several days, killing a fine deer, which he shipped to Salem Saturday.

Wild pigeon hunting has become a great sport around Leland. Some of the boys killed 32 Sunday.

Mrs. A. L. Epy and baby went to Fort Klamath last Friday to visit her sister, Mrs. Ed Stoneman.

Jack Farleigh, formerly of this place, but now in Nevada, is in the hospital, suffering from paralysis.

Will Ellis moved onto the Bean ranch on Grave creek Sunday, where he expects to raise turkeys next year.

A birthday party was given little Miss Dorothea DeVall Wednesday afternoon, October 18, in honor of her fifth year. The little folks played games and had a merry time, while the young ladies entertained the elder ladies with music and singing, after which delicious ice cream and cake were served. The little folks present were Nellie, Darrol and Fay Light, Alderene and Fred Epy, Glen and Richard Pruitt, Ernie Decker, Francis, Fanny and Georgia McCaslin, Harold, Athlene and Arnold Reed, Argareutte Cobb, Guy Critzer, Nina Williams, Henry and Gladys Walters, Stanley and Arlene Williams, Iva and Herbert Goff, Clifford Miller and Dorothea DeVall; Misses Inez Williams, Edith Klum, Rose DeVal, Winnie Decker, Effie and Martha Reed, Eunice Pruitt, Violet Reed, Inez Light, Ruth and Sylvia Walters; Mesdames Margaret Kenberger, Martha Stevens, H. O. Williams, E. L. Ellis, Gene Decker, Geo. Light, P. S. Williams, John McCaslin, John DeVall, Harry Benson, Guy Goff.

KERBY

After three days of vacation, while the teachers were in attendance upon the teachers' institute, school opened again on Monday with a full attendance.

The Ivy Tatting club met with Mrs. O. C. Dixon on Wednesday with a good attendance. Mrs. Ora Smith, from Sucker creek, was an invited guest of the club. The "club" is the principal social organization of Kerby and keeps all its original interest.

Mrs. W. I. Norris, of Klamath county, expects to leave for home on Friday. She will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. Q. Willis, as far as Medford, where they expect to spend a day or so among friends.

Mrs. Jack Huzzleton, for some years a resident of Kreby, has gone to join her husband at Klamath Falls, but will spend a few days visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Neilson, near Grants Pass.

Miss Tracy Stith, for years our popular and accommodating postmistress, on Wednesday took her departure for Juneau, Alaska, where she expects to make her home. Miss Stith has won a place in the affections of all who knew her and she is probably the best known personage in the Illinois valley. Always at her post, and kind and obliging to all—the youngest as well as the oldest—prompt in the discharge of her duties, in the telephone office as well as in the post office, she will be missed more than any other person in the valley. Miss Tracy carries with her the best wishes of all for a long, prosperous and happy life.

GRIFFIN FERRY

Rev. Geo. W. Olson, Church of God missionary from Jamaica, spoke in the Maple Grove school house Sunday.

J. L. Green and family are packing, ready for moving to Grants Pass the latter part of the week.

Miss Orpha Green returned to her home Monday from Penagar, Cal., where she has been since May.

Mrs. E. P. Evans, of Woodburn, Ore., visited with her brother, J. L. Green, last week.

B. Glaubitz is now employed at the Planagan mine.

C. E. Neely and John Panky found and cut a bee tree the first of the week, getting considerable honey.

Mrs. G. H. Griffin spent last week with her mother, Mrs. T. J. Everton, in Grants Pass.

HUGO

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Ward and Glenn McKy moved to the Lucky Queen mine for the winter.

Ray Cruthers, of Grants Pass, is spending a few days with his grandmother, Mrs. Dillen.

The Misses Helena Peterson and Alberta Martin made a business trip to Merlin last evening.

Miss Thelma Dolen, of Klamath Falls, arrived Saturday evening to visit her sister, Miss Marie, who is teaching school here.

Upon hearing a disturbance among the poultry early Sunday morning, A. T. Martin rushed out with a gun and shot an owl measuring four feet two inches from tip to tip.

Ernest Pruitt, of Merlin, was seen on our streets Tuesday evening.

The Glee club is to meet with Alberta Martin Saturday evening.

FRANCE EXPECTS WAR TO END NEXT SUMMER

San Francisco, Oct. 20.—Persons in authority in France believe the war will be over before the first of next August, according to Miss Mildred Kearney, daughter of Denis Kearney, old-time labor leader, who has just returned from Paris. She declared that many persons have already leased window space along the principal avenues of Paris, preparatory to the big review of French and British troops which is expected to follow the conclusion of the war.
