

Musical Instruments

- VIOLINS
- GUITARS
- MANDOLINS
- BANJOS
- UKULELES
- ZITHERS, ETC.

A good stock on hand at all times and at reasonable prices. Call and look them over

Music and Photo House
STANTON ROWELL, Prop.

JOY

Friday and Saturday

A Great Dramatic Feature
(Red Feather)

"The Iron Hand"

Hobart Bosworth, Jane Novak and Frank Newberg

The Famous Laugh Masters
Eddie Lyons and Lee Moran

"All Bets Off"

COUNTY TREASURER'S CALL FOR ROAD WARRANTS

All Josephine County (Pink) Road Warrants issued prior to December 6th, 1915, and protested on or prior to that date, are hereby called in and are payable at the Treasurer's office on or after the 13th day of November, 1916, on which date interest will cease.

J. E. PETERSON,
County Treasurer.
809

Sluggish Rivers.
In the course of a reading lesson a teacher received a smart answer from one of his pupils, though possibly the wit was unconscious. In the piece being read occurred the passage: "The majority of the rivers in Russia are sluggish in their course."
Pointing to the boy who had read, the teacher said:
"What is meant by a river being sluggish?"
"Why, sir," replied the lad, "it means that it likes to stick to its bed."

COMING EVENTS
Nov. 11, Saturday—Children's story hour at the public library at 10:30 a. m. Miss Campbell, story-teller.
Nov. 28, Tuesday—Cooked food, candy and holiday gift sale, by the women of the Presbyterian church.
Nov. 30, Thursday—Thanksgiving day.
Dec. 6, Wednesday—Cooked food sale and bazaar in St. Luke's Guild hall.
Dec. 8, Friday—Sale and supper by ladies of the Newman M. E. church.
Dec. 12, Tuesday—Bazaar by ladies of Baptist church.

NEW TODAY

(CLASSIFIED AD RATES.—25 words, two issues, 25c; six issues, 50c; one month, $1.50, when paid in advance. When not paid in advance, 5c per line per issue.)

FOR SALE—Four-year-old saddle horse, Hambletonian stock. Address Box 92, Merlin, Ore. 902

WATCH LOST—Waltham, 21-jewel, silver, open-face watch, in leather case; white metal chain. Finder please leave with D. S. Cook, 401 South Sixth street. Good reward. 899

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Miss Oro Willson went to Medford this afternoon to spend Sunday. Manda lamps at Rogue River Hardware. 894tf

Miss Margaret Meehan, former part owner of the Mocha restaurant, left this morning for Chicago.

Mrs. Mattie Stone, of Alturas, Cal., who visited her son, M. E. Stone, of this city, left this morning for San Francisco.

If you have any respect for your stomach, eat pure candy at the Sugar Bowl. 899

Miss Fern Bailey returned this morning from Medford, where she spent the past month.

If you love your wife, buy her fresh candy at the Sugar Bowl. 899

Mrs. T. F. Knackstedt and daughter returned this afternoon to Etna Mills, Cal., after visiting Mrs. W. H. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dodge, of San Rafael, who attended the funeral of Mrs. Mary Dodge, left this morning, returning to their home.

All the latest coats; fine plain clothes, Shakespearean collars, and full flare skirts. Just what you want. Mrs. E. Rehkopf. 871tf

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lutz left this morning for Albany to spend ten days visiting. Mr. Lutz is a member of the Southern Pacific bridge gang.

Pure and fresh candy will hurt no one. Try the Sugar Bowl. 899
Mrs. R. S. Wilson returned this morning to Three Pines, after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Riley.

Sole leather at Rogue River Hardware. 894tf
Mrs. W. L. Thomas and children arrived this afternoon from Roseburg, Mr. Thomas, Southern Pacific engineer, having been transferred to this place.

Fine Sunday dinner at the Oxford.
Mrs. Lee McMichael and two daughters came in this morning and left by automobile for Holland to join Mr. McMichael, who is working in that section.

F. E. Weisenfuh, former manager of the Rogue Valley creamery, now with the Damascus creamery at Portland, arrived here last night to spend a few days in the city on business. Excellent table at the Oxford. 903

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Wedding at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

WEST VIRGINIA VOTE IS CLOSE

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 10.—With 131 precincts in 1,716 missing, Hughes was leading Wilson by 3,149. The count was Hughes 133,280; Wilson, 130,131.

Cornwall, democrats for governor, is again leading Robinson, republican, by 1,358 votes, with 135 precincts missing.

Southern and western counties have sprung many surprises.

Early today federal officers were in charge of many ballot boxes in Marshall county and elsewhere.

Mining blanks at the Courier office.

Joy Theatre

Sunday and Monday!

Daughter of a lazy, good-for-nothing, novel-reading, "can-rushing" father, she toiled, half slave, behind the counter of a five and ten cent store for five dollars a week. Her shoes were so full of holes that she picked up splinters in the bottom of her feet from the rough boards of the floor where she stood behind the counter—so rotten with age and wearing that they were ready to fall from the lashes that bound them around her ankles. Every Saturday she took her unopened pay envelope home to her mother—victim of a husband's laziness and compelled to take in washing that he might live, and, drink beer, smoke his pipe and read novels. For three weeks her mother had promised the shop girl that she should have money to buy shoes—three times the excuse of house rent, the butcher's bill and groceries to be paid for denied the fulfillment of the promise. Finally, unable longer to quiet the surge of resentment that overwhelmed her repugnance, the shop girl procured her own shoes—and in the understanding tears of her mother the child's sins were washed away. Behold in "Shoes," the Bluebird photoplay to be exhibited at the Joy Theatre on Sunday and Monday, the greatest sociological problem picture ever screened.

Always Waiting.
Dashaway—You have splendid looking clothes, old man. Who is your tailor? Cleverton—He's the first man you see as you go out.—Life.

More Effective Than Words.
Ephim Johnson was up before the judge on a cruelty to animals charge. "Deed, Ah wasn't shush' dat mule, judge," the old man demurred. "Did you not strike it repeatedly with a club?"
"Yessah."
"And do you not know that you can accomplish more with animals by speaking to them?"
"Yassah; but dis critter am diff'nt. He am so deaf he can't hear me when Ah speaks to him in de usual way, so Ah has to communicate wid him in de sign language."—Brooklyn Citizen.

Oddities About Alphabets.
When the Portuguese first explored Brazil they made great fun of the natives of that country because they had in their alphabet no f, r or l—a people, the invaders declared, without fey or rey—without faith, law or king. The Mohawks, again, have no labials and vowed it was absurd when the missionaries tried to teach them to pronounce p and b, "for who," said they, "can speak with his mouth shut?"

Gore in Mexican Sport.
The Mexican lion with Spanish blood in his veins is nearly always fond of the sight of gore. At a Mexican cockpit the betting is faster and more furious than the fun at a three-ring circus, and the enthusiasm is about as great when the steel spurred cocks cut one another to pieces as when a mad bull goes a horse to death in the bull ring.—National Geographic Magazine.

Modernly Defined.
"Father," said the small boy, "what's an explorer?"
"An explorer, my son, is a man who discovers some place that nobody wants to go to and that he wouldn't be able to find anyhow."—Washington Star.

German and Germans.
German silver was not invented in Germany and does not contain any one particle of real silver. It is really an alloy of copper, nickel and zinc. The word "german" is really a corruption of the original word "germane," which means "related to." Therefore it is "germane silver," meaning "related to" silver. So with "german menials."

Job printing of every description at the Courier office.

C. L. Mangum Passes Away.
C. L. Mangum died early this morning of pneumonia. The funeral will be held from the residence, Fifth and L streets, Saturday, at 2 p. m. Friends of the family are invited.

Observe Sugar Beet Day.
The Grants Pass Lumber company will close at 11 o'clock Saturday and remain closed the balance of the day. 898

Englewood Dairy.
The best milk, cream and ice cream. Phone 222. 1f

When You Sell Your Crop.
Deposit your check or money in the Josephine County Bank. They will furnish you a check book free. You can then pay by check, which is the up-to-date business way. 11-10

Speaks on "Repentance."
Mr. Mathis delivered one of his strongest sermons last night at the tabernacle. The great miracle of conversion, that comes from repentance, was shown to transform the most evil of men into consistent workers for righteousness. The text was taken from the words of Christ, "Except ye repent ye shall likewise perish."

Dance at the Waldorf.
Saturday night. Tickets 75c. 898

Salvation Army Appeals.
As the winter is coming on, and the cry of the needy is coming in faster than relief can be given, the Salvation Army earnestly requests that you give anything of value you can spare. Clothing is especially needed. Phone 312-R mornings. L. L. Lambert, officer in charge, residence 1003 L street.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

Married at Selma.
At the home of Mrs. Laura Bishop, the bride's aunt, at Selma, John Marion Gundry, of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Nevada Seaman, of Josephine county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Judge Dellinger. After the ceremony a large crowd of relatives and friends were sumptuously dined, and immediately thereafter the happy pair left for San Francisco, where they intend making their future home. The bridegroom is employed with the United States government in the capacity of foreman, excavating a tunnel connecting two towns.

They Give You That Finished Appearance

Here are the weaves and fabrics, that represent the manufacturer's highest art, that are now being shown in the fashion centers of the world. Here are serges, worsteds, cassimeres, chevots, home-spuns and tweeds that give you a new idea in rare and refined patterns.

ADLER'S Collegian Clothes

Conceded by our customers to be the most attractive examples of expert clothes-making ever displayed. Such beauty in style and perfection in tailoring has never been shown before in clothes at our prices.

You will find your favorite pattern, weave and color made up in a cut and style that will fit you as if made to your individual order.

Peerless Clothing Co. $15 to $35

DEMOCRATS LOSE

(Continued from Page 1)

ment. Martin is the first man not a democrat to be elected in Louisiana in 25 years. He is described as being basically a democrat, with a strong dash of protection.

Meyer London had a bitter fight and was reelected by less than 200 votes. He has so far consistently kept away from any hint of favoritism toward either republicans or democrats. Schall is an "unreconstructed rebel," as the dyed-in-the-wool, refuse-to-die progressives call themselves. He can be counted on to favor only the party that puts up what he thinks is the most progressive legislation and the best man for speaker. Fuller is said to have grown his independent faith from the political emanations of former democratic Governor Foss of Massachusetts, who has frequently hopped back and forth from republican to democratic affiliation.

There will be several new faces in the senate. Prominent among the freshmen is Hiram Johnson, progressive extraordinary and plenipotentiary from the state that seems to have been the deciding wedge in the presidential balance—California.

Another is J. O. Wolcott, of Delaware. Wolcott won from DuPont, one of the venerable elder senators. Frank B. Kellogg, "trust buster," has been ordered by Minnesota to take up the job Senator Clapp will leave off on March 4.

Some of the best known faces will be missing. Senator Clarke of Wyoming, who ranked along with Senator Lodge and Veteran Gallinger in length of service, was defeated. Senator Kern, who was once a vice-presidential candidate, went down with the Indiana landslide. Kern was democratic floor leader. With Kern, Tom Taggart, Indiana political war horse and mentor, was defeated.

Lifting a Child.
"I wish," said the woman who has children of her own, "that women would understand the delicate mechanism of a child. How would they like a giant to come along and suddenly drag them from the ground by one arm, as I have seen so many people do to children? When you're lifting a child lift it evenly by both arms or from the waist. Don't yank it up by a grab at one wrist and then wonder why it cries. It makes me so angry I always want to pull the arm of that inconsiderate woman hard and see if she wouldn't cry too. It's a thing that mothers and aunts and sisters ought to learn."

Dark Accusation.
"Did you see where a man somewhere accused his wife in court of lighting the gas with two dollar bills?"
"Well, I don't blame him for getting mad if she made light of his earnings that way."—Baltimore American.

Job printing of every description at the Courier office.

"The Pretty Sister" of Jesse, Paramount photoplay, tonight and Saturday night. "The Making of Maddalena," with Edna Goodrich, Sunday and Monday.

Star Theatre

BLISS TONIGHT

TRIANGLE PHOTOPLAYS

Last chance to see

Dorothy Gish

and the famous Triangle Kiddles in one of those rarely charming stories

"The Little Schoolma'm"

in five acts

MACK SWAIN

in a rollicking Keystone A laugh in every scene

This is an exceptionally good Program Ten Cents

TOMORROW—Robert Edeson and Eleanor Woodruff in photo version of Sir Gilbert Parker's Novel, "Big Jim Garretty."

Job printing of every description at the Courier office.