

"Only 'Gets-It' for Me After This!"

It 'Gets' Every Corn Every Time. Painful. Nothing More Simple. 'I'll tell you what, I've quit using toe-eating knives for corns. I've quit making a package out of my toes with bandages and contraptions—quit digging with knives and scalpels. Give me 'GETS-IT' every time!

When You See These Pretty Girls in Your Dreams, It's a Good Time to End Your Corns.

That's what they all say the very first time they use 'GETS-IT.' It's because 'GETS-IT' is so simple and easy to use—put it on in a few seconds—because there is no work or corn-fooling to do, no pain that shoots up to your heart. It gets your corns off your mind. All the time it's working—and then, that little old corn peels right off, leaves the clean, corn-free skin underneath—and your corn is gone! No wonder millions prefer 'GETS-IT.' Try it tonight. 'GETS-IT' is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere. It's a bottle or sent on receipt of price by R. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

JOHNSON MUST RESIGN AS CALIFORNIA'S GOVERNOR

Sacramento, Nov. 11.—Hiram Johnson can not be United States senator and governor of California at the same time, but must resign the latter office by March 4, 1917, or violate the California constitution, according to a statement today by the state comptroller's office. This office has been investigating the matter of issuing salary warrants when Johnson becomes senator. It points to provisions of the state constitution that no person holding a lucrative office under the United States or the state shall exercise the duties of governor.

Yes, What? Engineer Storekeeper (dictating)—Two gross fire bricks. Stoker (writing)—Two gross fire bricks. Engineer Storekeeper—"Bricks" don't spell bricks. Stoker—Well, wot do it spell?—London Punch.

WAR'S PAGE TOO FAST FOR MIDDLE AGED MEN

Armies of Boys Will Soon Be Facing Each Other on European Battlefields.

The war threatens soon to become a struggle between mere boys. The pace is said to be entirely too fast for the older men long to endure. It is asserted that next year the armies facing each other will be composed to a great extent of boys seventeen and eighteen years old. General Sir Douglas Haig, commanding the British expeditionary forces, is said to have objected to the sending out of men of middle age. He wants men from eighteen to twenty-five years old. After the latter year it is said the fighting value of the human unit shows a rapid and steady decline. The good soldier of today, it seems, must be of the age which excels in the more strenuous athletic games—the football player type. The older men have their place; but, generally speaking, it is said now to be in "the army behind the army"—the men back of the line, in the supply and transport divisions, where the strain is not so great. These older men are too susceptible to trench diseases to be of great use on the firing line. England already is registering boys born in 1896, preparatory to calling them when they attain their eighteenth year.

ABANDONS THE MEMPHIS.

Cruiser Blown Ashore in Hurricane Will Not Be Salvaged. The navy department has practically decided not to attempt to salvage the cruiser Memphis, which was blown ashore in a tropical hurricane in the harbor of Santo Domingo. The cost of salvaging and of repair would be between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000. Although the board of inquiry, headed by Captain John F. Hood of the Naval War college, has reported in favor of salvaging, the navy department decided to spend the money required on new ships. The collier Hector, which was grounded off the south Atlantic coast in a storm, is almost a total loss, although hope is still held out that the engines and equipment of the vessel will be safe.

OLD SUIT DISMISSED.

Case Had Been in Connecticut Courts For Thirty-two Years. After years of litigation in various Connecticut courts the will case of Louis T. Goodnow of California against Marie O. Hotchkiss and Yale university has been dismissed by Judge Edwin S. Thomas of the United States court at Hartford. The suit was brought thirty-two years ago by a grandchild of the late William T. Hotchkiss of New Haven, who objected to the widow giving a large portion of the estate to Yale.

Russian Crafters in Jail. Considerable sensation has been caused at Kiev, Russia, by the arrest and punishment of two distinguished officers. Colonel Glenn, chief of the military board, who was sentenced to two years imprisonment for tampering with the army food supply and purchasing half rotten meat, and Colonel Pantukin, formerly in charge of the military clothes supply at Omak, who was sentenced to a year and a half imprisonment for embezzling large sums by giving bogus receipts to pretended purchasers.

WALDO

Mrs. Hull was a Waldo visitor Tuesday. Mrs. J. T. Logan and sister, Miss Ruth York called on Mrs. Dick White Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Cash Hendricks spent the day Wednesday with Mrs. Frank Harris. Miss Ruth York of Ashland, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. T. Logan. Mrs. E. P. Harris visited with Mrs. Stewart Friday. Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Akerill were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. White Tuesday evening. Miss Maple Moore, of Wilbur, Oregon, arrived Friday to take up her duties as instructor of the upper grade in the Waldo school. Misses Linna and Bessie Albright were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. J. A. Dyser Tuesday. A week's vacation in the Waldo school was found necessary the past week owing to the non-arrival of the upper grade teacher, Miss Moore, and the placing of the partition in the school building. The Waldo Sunshine club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. J. T. Logan on Thursday afternoon. At the close of a pleasant afternoon dainty refreshments were served to the following ladies: Mesdames Hull, Donald Graham, Frank Harris, Frank Stewart, Bert Dyser, L. D. Corbett, J. T. Logan and Misses Julia and Ruby O'Brien.

MURPHY

Al Mathes has had a sale and disposed of his stock and other farm produce. He has not decided where he will locate. Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, Mr. Singler and Mrs. Ernest Jeffers left Tuesday, traveling by auto to the latter's home in Colusa, Cal. Mrs. Cunningham will remain for some time with her sister, Mrs. Jeffers, and the gentlemen will continue their journey home to Trinidad, Colo. Mrs. Single remained for an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. Pickett Woodson, of Murphy. Dr. Bestul was a caller in Murphy Sunday, treating a sick horse belonging to Wm. Jeffers. Mrs. Mildred Woodson, who has been keeping house for Ralph Wood, has moved into Grants Pass, and R. K. Woodsons have moved into the Woods' bungalow for the winter. Ralph Wood will remain in Chicago for some time, as his father is recovering very slowly from a severe stroke. Nearly every voter in Murphy precinct voted Tuesday. Word has been received from the Harters, who returned to their old home in Iowa, of their safe arrival and that they had not decided on a location, but expected to find something that would suit them before long. A large number of friends gathered at the Sweeney home last Saturday to witness the marriage of Anna Sweeney and Ralph Day and to extend to them hearty congratulations and best wishes. The rain has interfered very greatly with the beet digging and hauling.

SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE HAS NEW PROBLEM

Washington, Nov. 11.—What will the speaker of the house call the newly elected congresswoman? The fixed form for addressing members is the "Gentleman from—" whatever state the solon hails from. Many agreed the best way out was to address Miss Rankin as "The Lady from Montana."

LION CUBS CHRISTENED AMID CEREMONY

Photo by American Press Association. Pomp and ceremony marked the christening of these three lion cubs born Aug. 31 to Helen and Leo in Central park zoo, New York city. The exercises were slightly unusual in that the parents were not permitted to attend, their company manners not being above reproach. Park Commissioner Cabot Ward named the three lion cubs Aguedilla, Isabella and Junyama, after three cities in Porto Rico, of which he once was governor.
