"Sin," Is Tabernacle Topic—Booze, infidelity, dishonesty, and a certain class of high society were among the influences that have stood between God and the people since time immemorial, was the declaration of Evangelist Mathis in his last night's Tabernacle address. "But, thank God," he said, "both booze and infidelity are pretty nearly relegated to oblivion." Speaking on the subject of "Sin," he described the fruit thereof as it existed in the jails, penitentiaries, and the slums of our cities. After a passionate appeal for honesty in man he concluded: "If a man is not honest, God can do nothing with him, and I am glad to know that every step in a Christian's life is a step toward manhood and womanhood." Mr. Vessey and Mrs. Basler sang "Won't You Come Back Home."

GROWERS OF BEETS GET FIRST CHECKS

Wednesday was the first pay day at the sugar factory when checks were handed out to beet growers for their beets. The first beets were received at the factory on October 23rd, and the payments made Wednesday were for the receipts at the factory during the last eight days of October, the accounts being balanced up to the end of the month. A total of 117 checks to growers for beets received between October 23rd and November 1st was given out. The first check given was to Leroy Heston, for the beets grown upon a tract of ground 75x100 feet at his home on K street. Mr. Heston received a sample package of beet seed from the company last spring and planted it on his residence lot upon granite soil. He harvested from the little piece 4162 pounds, for which the company gave his check No. 1, amounting to $11.45. One grower had only 400 pounds in the first settlement while the one with the greatest amount was paid for 117 loads of about two tons per load. The aggregate of the 117 checks for the beets received during the last week of October was $25,540.61. Growers who complete the hauling
