Appointed Administrator—
Elmer G. Morey has been appointed administrator of the estate of Mary A. Morey, deceased.
The Patriotic Meeting—
Arrangements are being completed for the monster patriotic meeting at the opera house Sunday afternoon. The Chamber of Commerce is in charge of the affair, and the G. A. R., W. R. C., the choir of the city churches, the orchestra and citizens generally are co-operating. The doors will be opened at 2:30 and the program commences at 3:00. There will probably be a record attendance.
Corsetiere at the Oxford—
Mrs. A. True Lundy, corsetiere for the Nu Bone company, will be in Grants Pass Sunday afternoon to Tuesday at the Oxford. Call or phone. 17
Man Dead in Cabin—
The man who was reported some days ago as found dead in his cabin, near Holland was Cheto Rodengins. He was nearly 65 years of age, was born in California, but came to Oregon when a small boy, and had made his home in Josephine county since. He left a sister who lives in California, but her address is not known. He was a member of the Kerbyville lodge, I. O. O. F., and was buried by the lodge.
Monday Luncheon Subject—
The discussion at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Monday noon will be on the general subject "How can business man and farmer help one another?" Prof. C. C. Cate, county pathologist of Jackson county, will lead the discussion, followed by representatives of the local agricultural society and business men. Prof. Cate's talk will give some ideas of the dollar and cents value to a community of careful experimental and inspection work in agriculture and horticulture.
Remember—
Saturday is "Boston baked beans" day at Moore Bakery. 15
The Immigrant in the U. S.—
A large and enthusiastic gathering at Bethany Presbyterian church last evening enjoyed a live and interesting program. The Americanization of the foreign immigrant was plainly set forth in a number of addresses and in which some who took part were the living demonstration of the successful life of our foreign population. A realistic touch was given the study of Japan in the decorations of the room, which carried the audience to the land of cherry blossoms. A playette by the young people of Bethany church, "A Missionary's Day," was a delightful contribution to the evening. Mrs. T. P. Cramer and Mrs. H. S. Prescott demonstrated that people will sit up and take notice of a missionary meeting.

Faxes Soon Overdue—
The first half of the 1916 faxes will be overdue on April 5, and those not paid on or before that date will be charged with interest at one per cent per month until paid. 18

G. A. R. and W. R. C. Attention—
Members of General Logan Post and W. R. C. are requested to meet at the Woodman hall Sunday afternoon to march in a body to the patriotic meeting at the opera house at 3 o'clock. By order of Post commander and Corps president.

Don't Fall—
To eat health bread and cookies, fresh daily at Moore Bakery. 15

Fuel Dealer Investigates—
H. P. Edlefsen, of the Edlefsen Fuel company of Portland, arrived in the city this morning, and is looking into the possibility of developing a fuel supply in the timbered country adjacent to the new railroad. He is being shown around the country by R. B. Miller and others of the C. & O. C. railroad company.

In Officers' Training Corps—
Word received from Vernon Basler states that he belongs to the officers' reserve training corps at Corvallis, and in case of war he will have the rank of an officer instead of being a private. Mr. Basler is a lieutenant of the cadets at the O. A. C., and should the nation become involved in war, he would be detailed to train recruits for the army.

Back Again at Sabin's—
Those 23c chocolates, nut goods, fruit creams, nougats, better than ever. Not more than two pounds to a person. Saturday only. Sabin the Druggist. 15

Show Odd Fellows Welcome—
The Chamber of Commerce has offered the services of its organization, committees and secretary to the Odd Fellows lodge in helping to make the convention of southern Oregon Odd Fellows to be held in this city on April 28th, a real success. The city has a good reputation as a host which the Chamber intends shall be maintained.

Former Resident Here—
George E. Good, of LaGrande, arrived here yesterday for a visit with his daughters, Mrs. Ernest Lister and Mrs. Tom Galvin. Mr. Good is well known in this city having at one time been mayor of Grants Pass. He also conducted the Josephine hotel. Until a short time ago, he has owned the Sommer House at LaGrande. Mrs. Good has been here for several days and will return with Mr. Good to LaGrande in a few days.

Corporal Broderick Arrives—
Corporal J. A. Broderick arrived this morning from Portland to relieve Corporal Morton, who has had charge of the army recruiting office here for the past month. Corporal Broderick states that only a few more men are needed for the aviation section of the signal corps of the army but that a few men with a knowledge of gasoline engines can still be used. This branch of the army is comparatively new and has been filling up rapidly.

We shall endeavor to keep a neat, up-to-date lumber yard and in time hope to be able to furnish any thing in the building line. Our motto in Ashland is "QUALITY and SERVICE" We hope, in time, to give you both in Grants Pass. We will be pleased to figure with you. CARSON-FOWLER LUMBER CO.

Put Out Fish Bulletin—
The Southern Pacific company has started issuing a fish bulletin every Thursday with reports of fishing conditions in the best angling resorts of the state. A report of the weather condition of the water, kind of fish caught and the lure is included in the statement.
River Threatens Dam—
The high water of the past few days has endangered the old dam below the steel bridge on Sixth street. In a few places parts of the dam are missing and should the river become much higher, it is improbable that it will be able to withstand the pressure.
Trout Season to Open—
The trout season will be legally open on Sunday, the first day of April, and according to reports this will be a good year for the fisherman. During the winter months, the ban has been put on the catching of trout under 10 inches, but after the first of the month the limit will be cut to six inches.
Senior Play Tonight—
The farce comedy, "Bluffing It," which is being staged by the seniors of the local high school, under the direction of Mrs. A. H. Gunnell, will open tonight at the opera house for a two-night run. Much work has been put on the play by the members of the cast, and a good show is promised. According to box office figures, a large crowd will be in attendance.

SEEK RECRUITS FOR THE COAST DEFENSE
Representatives of the naval coast defense reserve are in the city for the purpose of enrolling citizens in that branch of the national defense. Recruits from this section would belong to the 13th naval district and be assigned to duty on the coasts of Oregon and Washington. No service or training is required in time of peace. If war is declared and the reserve is needed they are called to duty within this district. On active duty, the pay is the same as similar rank pay of the regular navy. Men are enrolled for work in practically the same line as they follow in civil life. Especially does the service desire mechanics, machinists, blacksmiths, steam and gas engineers, electricians, drug clerks, clerks, bookkeepers, and in fact practically any trade or profession. Women are enrolled as stenographers, telegraphers and telephone operators. The reserve offers a good chance for citizens to serve the country and state in time of national emergency without the troublesome requirements in time of peace. The enrolling party consists of Lieut. H. C. Frazer, Dr. R. G. Davis, Chief Quartermaster J. E. Groat, Chief Pharmacist J. J. Mitchell and Mechanic's Mate R. M. Parker. They will be at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce today and tomorrow. Those desiring information on the subject are urged to call.

"Did you get her jewelry?" asked the outside man.
"None," replied the burglar. "I couldn't find it nowhere."
"Where did you look for it?"
"Searches her jewel case and every drawer in the bureau, and it wasn't there."
"Did you look to see if she had it on?"
"Yep. She was asleep, but she didn't have no rings on her fingers."
"Shucks. You don't know nothing about the ways of women. Why didn't you go into the bathroom? You'd have found the whole outfit where she left it on the washstand."-Detroit Free Press.
