Visits in City—
Bert Presley arrived in the city yesterday from Corvallis for a visit here for a short time. Mr. Presley is a cadet at the O. A. C., and recently passed examination for first class private, of which there are only four in each company. He states that the young men of the college are enlisting in the army rapidly and that the attendance at classes is fast diminishing. The cadets are expecting to be called out at any time.

"Ambulance No. 10"—
"Ambulance No. 10," is the title of a book just presented to the public library by the American Ambulance Field Service. These personal letters from the front were written by Leslie Buswell, a young American volunteer serving in the ambulance corps in France. Henry Cabot Lodge calls this unusual book upon the war, "one of the very few really worth reading."

H. H. Allyn in Auditor's Office—
H. H. Allyn has been placed in charge of the office of the city auditor and police judge and will administer the duties of that position during the absence of Judge Basler, who has been ordered to report for duty at the U. S. naval station at Bremerton. Assisting in the office will be Mrs. Bernard Hall, who is familiar with the duties of the position. Judge Basler expects to leave for Bremerton Monday. Whether or not his position with the navy department will be permanent or only temporary he does not yet know.

Trustees Hold Meeting—
At the weekly meeting of the board of trustees, Grants Pass Chamber of Commerce, held Saturday noon, the monthly budget of bills was audited, a committee appointed to take up with the directors of the Northwest Tourist Association the listing in their advertising campaign of Josephine county tourist attractions and industrial resources, and a committee also named to devise ways and means to further the use of vacant city lots for gardens in compliance with the urgent recommendations of Governor Withycombe.

Peck Trial Is Delayed—
The case of W. C. Peck, charged with the larceny of copper plates from mines in this county, was put over till the latter part of this week, when the judge will return and the jury will be assembled to try the case if witnesses wanted are found by that time. Otherwise, the case will go over until the next jury term.

Birthday Celebration—
Thursday, April 5, Mrs. Ransome Orme entertained a number of friends at her home in celebration of the birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Wm. Wilcox. Music visiting and games filled the afternoon hours, after which a lunch was served, then all enjoyed a speech by Mrs. Wilcox, who was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts.

Died Yesterday—

The deceased was 31 years, 5 months and 4 days of age. The funeral will be held Monday at the Newman M. E. church, at 2:30. Rev. Wire officiating. Interment will be made at the Granite Hill cemetery.

Sends Contribution—
From Grants Pass, Ore., comes an unlooked-for contribution to Robert Smith, the blind man who sells lead pencils on Portland street corners. Moved by a local news story published a few days ago, that Smith's 17-year-old son had enlisted, A. Dawkins, instructor of the commercial class in the Grants Pass high school, sends The Telegram $1.50 with instructions to invest the sum in Smith's lead pencils and mail them to him.—Portland Telegram.

Storage Battery Service Station—
Benj. M. Collins, of the Maxwell garage, and Carl Gentner on Saturday made arrangements with the Prest-O-Light storage battery people whereby they will maintain a service station in Grants Pass, and they have placed an order for a charging plant and service batteries, and will have a complete plant as can be found in southern Oregon. Mr. Gentner will have supervision of the charging and repairing departments.

Mr. Underwood to Talk—
The merchants of the city are taking an unusual interest in the talk to be given at the Chamber of Commerce weekly luncheon Monday noon on "Trade Acceptances," by E. M. Underwood, late president of the States Credit Men's association. A highly beneficial departure in handling credit business is being urged upon the business men of the nation by the Federal Reserve banks which will be fully explained at this meeting.

Prof. Peck Here—
Prof. A. L. Peck, of the O. A. C., spent Saturday in the city. Prof. Peck is a well known landscape gardener of the college, and while here gave numerous pointers on the care of the city parks. During the forenoon the civic committee of the Ladies Auxiliary was given instructions on the beautifying of the city. In the afternoon he explained the care of parks to the park board and laid out various changes that could be made. Saturday night he gave a stereopticon lecture at the Chamber of Commerce assembly room, which was well attended.

Tries New Experiment—
W. J. C. Long, who has a ranch near Merlin, has recently tried out a new experiment, in which the residents of Merlin are much interested. Mr. Long had several hundred cords of wood on Jump-Off-Joe creek and decided to try to drive it down the creek. There was a lack of water until last week, however, and when the experiment was finally tried, it proved successful. The wood was cut about eight miles above Merlin. It is being taken out by elevator, about a cord every 10 minutes. If this method can be applied to other creeks, it will save much expense in getting the wood to market.

Mollo Gets Verdict of $1,750—
The jury that heard the evidence in the action brought by George and Barbara Mollo, against the Rogue River Orchard company, brought in a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $1,750. The amount sued for was $7,100. Mollo contracted, as he alleged he supposed, to purchase a tract of land of the defendants, and later proceeded to clear and develop the lands. His supposed contract being only a lease, he sued for the return of money spent in clearing, orchard, personal services, etc., in all a claim of $7,100. The jury granted judgment in the sum of $1,750.

CAMPAIGN ON FOR CHAMBER MEMBERS

Sixteen of the prominent business men of the city gathered at the Chamber of Commerce rooms Saturday and resolved themselves into a membership committee of the Chamber with the avowed purpose of securing forty additional members—that number being required to maintain the work of the organization as planned. Citizens are urged to help this committee in its undertaking. The people of the city are beginning to realize that the Chamber of Commerce is a general clearing house and active agency for any community-welfare activity, and that it is deserving of loyal support.
