Annual Meeting of Southern Oregon Odd Fellows Association Grants Pass, Oregon

On April 26th Thomas Wildey and others organized the first Odd Fellow lodge in the United States of America. It was known as Washington lodge No. 1, and was located in the city of Baltimore, Maryland.

It has since grown till it is the largest fraternal order in the world and in its ranks are all classes and conditions of men.

The celebration of the 98th anniversary on the 26th of this month is looked forward to with much pleasure and anticipation by all the branches of the local lodge for some hundreds of visitors are expected from all the lodges of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in Southern Oregon.

In the afternoon of April 26th the Southern Oregon Odd Fellows Association will hold its session in Grants Pass and in the evening a good program will be given at a public meeting in the opera house.

Among others Prof A. J. Handby, of Medford, will speak on the spirit of Oddfellowship.

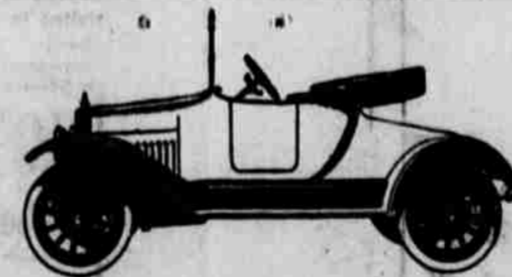

THE SLOGAN

Odd Fellow day; Rebekah day. The Clans will gather, the bands will play, There will be song and story and feast that's gay, Odd Fellow day. A Gala Day.

THE GOLDEN RULE extends a hearty welcome to all visiting Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. A visit to the various departments of this store will be highly appreciated. The spring and summer stocks are now at their best, and special displays will be made so as to give our visitors some idea of our ability to supply the demands of the community with good reliable merchandise at the lowest prices.

You all know what that means; its service, durability, minimum maintenance, all of which, means satisfaction. It MUST be so, for we have just unloaded our THIRD car, and all sold except four, or orders on our books for them. That's fourteen cars in less than three months.

Remember the price raises $30.00 on May 1st. We are going to maintain quality regardless of price; if you give your order prior to that date you save the raise.

Are You?

at ease among the well-dressed crowd? With the coming of sunny days and bursting buds, throngs of promenaders and pleasure-seekers will soon make their appearance. Where is the man that has not the desire to be as well dressed as the average? Dressing correctly doesn't imply vanity, neither does it compel extravagance. With men it means discretion and the ability to discriminate between false appearance and real value.
