Fire at Williams Home—A hole about six feet in diameter in the roof of the J. H. Williams home at Seventh and B street was the net result of a burning chimney Monday evening. Some paper and excelsior in the fireplace had been set on fire and the sparks from the blazing chimney are supposed to have fallen on the roof. The early discovery of the blaze by a neighbor who gave the alarm was responsible for the small damage.

GREAT MORAL SERMON

Arthur Burrage Farwell, head of the Chicago Law and Order League, makes the following statement in his letter:

"Two of the worst evils which destroy character and life are vice and intoxicating liquor. When designing men desire to ruin a girl, usually liquor is their strongest ally. Every boy and girl should understand the dangers and be prepared to meet them. Study this picture 'The Little Girl Next Door.' It represents the truth.

"It shows methods employed to trap young girls into a vicious life and emphasizes the necessity of young people being told of the dangers ahead. It is a great moral sermon." 60
