Fill In Picture Puzzle No. 25

A BOAT which you drew in your last picture is a wonderful thing, isn't it? Large boats, bigger than the one you drew, carry goods all over the world. Rich men use them for pleasure. Perhaps you have been on one of them. Sometimes boats can't find a place to dock. They do not want to move around, so they carry something on board which they use to keep them in one spot. They are queer shaped things. You can quickly draw one if you'll start your pencil at No. 1 and let it run to 2, 3, 4, and so on.

Uranus.

It was on the evening of March 13, 1781, that William Herschel, at Slough, England, discovered a new planet. Wishing to pay a compliment to George III, his patron, he gave it the name of Georgium sidus, or the Georgian star. Other English astronomers, wishing to compliment the discoverer himself, suggested the name of Herschel. Continental astronomers proposed that the old mythological system be followed, and the name of Uranus was accepted by the scientific world for the seventh planet.

He Should Have Known It!

Mrs. Neaurich was talking to her broker over the telephone. "Kindly buy me a hundred shares of steel at the market," she said briskly. "Certainly, with pleasure," the broker replied, "common or preferred?" "Preferred!" replied Mrs. Neaurich jolly. "I never purchase anything common!"—The Lamb.

MURPHY

Mrs. R. K. Woodson, Mrs. Chas. Sweeney, Mrs. W. G. White and Mrs. T. E. Gilmore were visitors at the Red Cross rooms in Grants Pass Monday, getting information in regard to the work of the society at Murphy.

Mary Inman and Orin Ellis were married Monday and have left for their home in California.

The Murphy Sunday school will have a picnic July 12. All are expected to bring well filled baskets and have a good time. The children will give a short program.

Lester Darnelle came home Tuesday to spend the Fourth and will leave Friday.

Walter Beagle went to Ashland Saturday.

Wm. Letican and wife, of Salem, arrived Thursday morning to visit friends and relatives for a few days, and also took in the round-up at Ashland.

Dr. and Mrs. Sweeney were in Medford Wednesday.

Nearly everybody went over to Ashland for the Fourth, and report big crowds and a good time. It looks like Grants Pass ought to wake up by another year and celebrate.

Wheeler Osborne and bride arrived Thursday evening and will spend a few days at the Osborne home before going to their future home in California.

A Fighting Bishop.

On one occasion Bishop Selwyn was going down the river Waiakato with a Maori when the latter, who was very lazy, left off paddling the canoe, at the same time muttering that if Selwyn were not a bishop he would—well, "go for him."

In a moment the bishop told the man to turn the canoe ashore, where, stripping himself of everything episcopal, he said, pointing to his robes, etc.: "The bishop lies there; the man is here. I am quite ready. Come on."

The Maori did not "come on," however, but quietly resumed his work without another murmur.—London Tit-Bits.

Sure Cure.

A nervous man at the opera sat behind a pair of those persons who explain the plot until his endurance was exhausted. Then he leaned forward and said:

"Excuse me, will you speak a little louder? Sometimes the music prevents my hearing what you say."—Chicago Record.

Sicily's Big Tree.

It is said the largest tree known in thickness is a partly decayed chestnut in Sicily, which is sixty feet across. Mexican cypress and the oriental plane have reached forty feet. This puts the California big tree and the baobab in the background, but the big tree is of greater bulk in combined height and girth, and the baobab is thickest in relation to height.
