THE BIG RED FRONT

Red Cross Installments Due—
The second installment on the Red Cross pledges will be due on August 4th, and may be paid at any time to the local treasurer, R. K. Hackett, at the First National bank.

Elder Ballard to Speak—
Elder M. J. Ballard, president of the northwestern state mission of the Mormon church, will preach in the South Methodist church this evening at 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend. Special music.

Outdoor Service Tonight—
The union outdoor Sunday evening service will be held tonight at 8 o'clock on the Central school grounds. Please note the changed place from the railroad park. Rev. S. A. Douglas will conduct the service and preach the sermon.

The Wardrobe Cleaners—
At 315 North Sixth street. Phone 147. Receiving office with Peerless Clothing Co. Cleaning, pressing and repairing. We call for and deliver. 16

Auto Travel Heavy—
The auto tourist travel is at its height. Probably 40 cars pass through the city every day that hail from as far away as Pennsylvania and Kentucky. California furnishes more than any other state, even including Oregon.

Relief Committee Meets—
The committee on relief of the local Red Cross chapter met at the Chamber of Commerce on Saturday night to consider one or two applications for assistance that had been sent to them.

Linotype Operator Wanted—
A Linotype operator will be needed at the Courier office for two weeks beginning August 18, day work. Address Rogue River Courier, Grants Pass, Ore.

National Publisher Here—
L. E. Frost, of Chicago, editor and publisher of the Berkshire World, one of the national stock publications, and the recognized organ of the Berkshire breeders, made a visit to the Winona ranch to see F. R. Steel's celebrated herd of Berkshires. He left Friday night for California points.

Court House Work Progressing—
Construction work at the new court house is progressing satisfactorily. The plastering of the basement rooms has been finished, and the rooms on the first floor have been given the rough coat. The exterior tiling has been placed nearly to the roof and on the south end the cornice is being placed.

Before Fire Starts—
It is the mark of wisdom to have your deeds, papers and other valuables where they will not be burned up. Rent a Safety Deposit Box NOW of the Josephine County bank and avoid needless worry or loss of your deeds and securities. Fifty cents for three months. 16

Medford Company Leaves Today—
The coast artillery company of Medford has received orders to train for Fort Columbia this morning. The city has made unusual preparations to give the boys a rousing send-off. There are 150 men in the company, most of them from the best families in the city. Friday night a dance was tendered the members by the Elks lodge.

Stucco Workers Leave—
R. Mitschke, contractor for the ornamental stucco work for the new court house, has completed the contract and is making a trip to Crater Lake before returning to Portland. O. C. Schubert and J. L. Stahlbaum, stucco workers, left Friday night, returning to Portland. They completed for the building, 2,570 feet of ornamental moulding, 250 feet of ceiling beams, and 185 pieces of interior cornice.

Rev. L. Myron Booser entertained the young people of the Presbyterian church Friday at the manse, and a very enjoyable evening was spent with games of various kinds. Light refreshments were served.

Attending Camp Meeting—
Rev. Oscar Lewis, minister of the Church of God at Woodburn, arrived here Saturday morning to attend camp meeting. Among others who came at the same time were Miss Rachael Miller, and Mrs. Alice Coe, of Woodburn. Mr. and Mrs. Jacks arrived Friday by automobile from Aden, Cal., to attend.

Coast Artillery to Pass Through—
Word has been received that the First Coast Artillery Company of Ashland will pass through this city about 10 o'clock this morning. This is a special train made up at Ashland and will leave there at 8:30. This is the company which Lester Calhoun joined a few days ago. They are en route to Fort Stevens.

Church of God Camp Meeting—
The church of God camp meeting now in progress in the grove at the Riverside school has had a very good attendance since the opening a few nights ago. There is one large tent for general meetings, a dining tent and a number of tents for campers. The meetings continue for another week.

Medford Chevrolet Makes Record—
W. R. DeLay, of Medford, Ore., last week drove a Chevrolet Four-Ninety from Oakland, Cal., to Medford in 23 hours, averaging 24.2 miles per gallon gasoline. He was accompanied by two passengers and one of the most remarkable features of the run was the negotiating of the Siskiyou mountain grade on high gear.

McLeans Here for Few Days—
Robert N. McLean, head of the Spanish department of Duquesne college and seminary, Duquesne, Pa., arrived here Friday night. His father, Rev. Robert McLean, and his sister, Miss Christiana McLean who is assistant in Spanish at Duquesne, arrived the same night from Brookings, where they spent two weeks with R. M. McLean and family. They will all spend a few days here with old friends.

In Honor of 81st Birthday—
A party was given in honor of V. Wallace's 81st birthday on Friday, July 27th at his home on Orchard avenue. Covers were laid for 12. A sumptuous dinner was served, the last course being a large marble cake served with jellied fruit cream. Mr. Wallace is as hale and hearty as a boy of 20 years. His guests departed after a pleasant evening, wishing him many happy returns of the day.
