DUTCH CARTOONIST TO HELP STIR U. S.

New York, Aug. 8.—Louis Raemaekers, Dutch cartoonist on whose head the kaiser set a price of 12,000 marks, for showing up the Hun in all his frightfulness, is in America and will attempt to rouse Americans to a full sense of the "brutal Boche" driving home his argument with his powerful cartoons.

Raemaekers arrived at an American port recently after playing hide and seek with the German spy system at London and evading U-boats whose commanders had orders to "get" him.

When seen at the Vanderbilt hotel he laughingly told how he evaded the Germans who were intent on preventing him reaching America.

He remained in London for several days then jumped over to France, where he apparently sailed on at least a dozen vessels bound for the United States. He would board a vessel late at night. The German spies, seeing him go aboard would feel satisfied they had him cornered, but early the next morning or a few minutes before the ship sailed Raemaekers would quietly slip ashore and embark on another vessel. In this way he managed to keep the spies on a wild goose chase and eventually sailed unobserved.

Raemaekers told the United Press how Germany and "kultur" blighted Europe. "If the kaiser tried to stop the war today I believe the people would depose him," he declared. "They abused him before the war for not starting one when he alone knew Germany was not quite prepared. Blood and iron are drilled into the German people from childhood. And now by a system of atrocities they are trying to bring about the moral and physical collapse of their opponents to make war so cruel that it will be shortened."

Raemaekers became furious as he discussed Germany. His blue eyes seemed to flash fire. He paced the floor, emphasizing his argument by pounding his fists on tables and chairs. "Germans do not talk about the atrocities committed by their men," he said. "They are too terrible. Yet they are right now planning organized sympathy, for after the war. My idea is to conduct a trial after the war. A just trial where every man's guilt will be tried. Just like any criminal. Let no spirit of revenge prevail, but mete out to every man the punishment he deserves for the part he played in the outrage."

"The German spy system is more perfect than their army. Every man is a potential spy."

Asked if he did not feel apprehensive for his personal safety Raemaekers shrugged his shoulders. "I am armed," he replied. "Again, if they murder me it will only accentuate, only spread what I am trying to teach."

Raemaekers is in America for an indefinite stay and his drawings, of the style that caused the kaiser to place a price on his head will soon appear in American newspapers and magazines.

GERMAN PROFESSORS AGAINST FURTHER TEUTON PEACE

Amsterdam, Aug. 8.—It is stated here that a number of professors at Bohn university have signed a petition to the government asking that Germany not to again make a peace offer. They assert that the reply of Premier Lloyd George to the last effort of Germany for peace, was an insult to the nation.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS

Grants Pass People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home. It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills. For Grants Pass kidney sufferers. Have made their local reputation. Proof lies in the testimony of Grants Pass people.

Mrs. A. M. Evenson, 625 S. Fourth St., Grants Pass, says: "I was nearly laid up with sciatic rheumatism in my hip and down through one of my limbs. At times the pain was almost unbearable. Often the muscles and cords in my limbs seemed to contract, causing intense pain. During this trouble my kidneys were more or less affected, which prompted me to take Doan's Kidney Pills. The first box regulated the action of my kidneys and I took about three boxes in all when the rheumatic pains in my hips and limbs left me entirely." Price 60c, at all dealers. "Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Evenson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y."
