Library Open Sundays— Hereafter the public library will be open Sunday afternoons from 2 until 6, as was done before the summer season. The week day hours will remain the same as at present.

The Townsends Return— N. E. Townsend and wife returned to Grants Pass Thursday night after an absence of three months, visiting friends in California, Kansas, Colorado, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania and in Washington, D. C., and report a delightful time. Mr. Townsend says that people everywhere are intensely interested in the war and men in uniform are in evidence at all points. All manufacturing plants are taxed to the utmost and labor is scarce. Crops are abundant and the corn crop is very promising. Fruit in many sections is a failure and big prices are being paid for fruit on the trees. This would indicate a good price for the apples of the Rogue river valley.

Envelopes at the Courier.

Dance Postponed— The dance which was to have been given at Fruitdale Saturday night has been postponed until some future date.

Stores Will Close— Stores will be closed all day Monday, September 3, Labor day—Legal holiday.—Merchants' Association. 46

Teachers Are Entertained— The officers of the Parent-Teachers association surprised the teachers attending the training school by calling at the high school at the close of yesterday's sessions and serving the student teachers with refreshments. Though a simple affair, it was very enjoyable and thoroughly appreciated.

Dance at Waldorf— Saturday night. 45

Falls From Load of Hay— W. T. Coburn of Murphy, on Wednesday, was thrown from a load of hay by the breaking of the binding pole. He struck on his head, inflicting a severe cut and breaking the left arm near the wrist. County Clerk Coburn and a younger brother were with their father and medical aid was hurriedly summoned. It is believed no serious results will follow although Mr. Coburn will be laid up for several weeks.

Fire at Greenback Mine— Thursday forenoon the transformer house at the Greenback mine and a tool house were destroyed by fire which originated in the transformer house through a short circuit, supposed to have been caused by a tree falling across the power line. Seven big transformers were burned out and the mine will be without power until they can be replaced. In the meantime drilling will be continued by hand.

CREAMERY IS RESPONSIBLE FOR PASTEURIZING MILK

State Dairy and Food Commissioner Mickle requests that this paper call attention of local dairymen to the wording of the law passed by the last legislature. It reads:

"That from and after September 1, 1917, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, company, corporation or association, to sell or offer or expose for sale or exchange, for human consumption any milk from cows that have not passed the tuberculin test, unless such milk shall have been pasteurized as hereinafter provided. It is understood and hereby expressly stated that nothing in this section shall apply to the delivery of milk or cream to creameries, cheese or condensed milk factories by the producer of such milk or cream, or in bulk to the wholesale trade."

The point Mr. Mickle wishes to emphasize is that a farmer can sell to a creamery, cheese factory or the like and that the creamery or factory is held responsible for the proper pasteurization of the milk.

"SO LONG LETTY" AT THE VINING THEATRE

"So Long Letty," Oliver Morosco's most successful musical farce, which has wended its way from the shores of the Pacific, where it was first produced to the shores of the Atlantic during which it was complimented with long runs in several of our principal cities, comes to the Chautauqua auditorium, Ashland, Ore., Tuesday, September 11th, provided with a complete new scenic investiture and gorgeous costumes.

The catch dialogue and humorous situations of "So Long Letty" are no less responsible for the success of the performance than the music, which is light, wholly modern and very catchy in spots, and includes several numbers which linger with one, principally "So Long Letty," "When You Hear Jackson Moan on His Saxophone," "Married Men," "Maryland" and "Pass Around the Apples Once Again."

The cast includes Charlotte Greenwood, Sydney Grant, May Boley, Hal Skelly, Tyler Brooke, Henrietta Lee, Eunice Sauvain and Hallie Manning, besides Cunningham and Clements, a clever dancing act and a chorus of unusually talented and pretty girls. A special feature of "So Long Letty" is a novelty orchestra.
