TACOMA PROTECTS
MORALS OF CAMP

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 7.—City and county authorities here today are determined to protect the morals of the conscripts in training at Camp Lewis, American Lake.

Men convicted of selling or giving liquor to soldiers will be severely dealt with. Federal Judge E. E.
Cushman, ignoring recommendations for clemency made by federal agents and Assistant District Attorney Fish-burne, show the spirit manifest in the case of John O'Malley. O'Malley is alleged to have given a soldier at Camp Lewis a pint of whiskey. Cushman sent him to the county jail for three months.

"An effort may be made to import liquor into Tacoma or some of the surrounding towns for the soldiers," said one official today. "But we are prepared to enforce the law to the letter. The youth of the nation in training for democracy's war must be kept clean."

The amazing success of the national emergency food garden commission's campaign for home gardening is shown by the declaration of a noted bird-woman that from her airplanes the whole country looks like a giant dish of succotash.

The office boy says that if the government would go to keeping hens and feed them on cement, there would be no need of so many ammunition factories.

Now is the time for all good women to enlist in the preserve corps.

SENATE VOTES DOWN
HEAVY TAX MEASURES

Washington, Sept. 7.—The senate late today defeated the Lafollette amendment increasing the income tax, raising $643,000,000 more than the committee handling the bill had planned for it. Later the Hollis amendment adding $80,000,000 to the income tax levy, was defeated.

OLD TIME BUSINESS
HOUSE TO BE CLOSED

Mrs. E. A. Wade, who with her husband for the past 23 years has been actively engaged in business in Grants Pass, has sold her remaining stock and will retire to private life.
Mr. and Mrs. Wade in the years of business won a host of friends who will regret the closing of the place. Mrs. Wade gives a bit of history and a word of appreciation in the following:

The little brick store building, No.
407 G street, is today vacated and closed for business until rented, for the first time since it was completed and entered on November 27, 1894, Edwin A. Wade (deceased May 13th) and family thought it would be delightful to establish a home and business that might support us as we neared the sunset of life. We purchased the lot of J. O.
Booth, at one time county judge and honored citizen of Grants Pass, and Mr. Depuy, perhaps the first brick mason here, erected the building.
W. A. Hood and M. C. H. Day completed the inside and a grocery and feed business was established, but after several years it became too laborious and in November, 1907, it was converted into a dry goods store.
We have greatly enjoyed the friendship and kindly patronage of the good people of Grants Pass and the surrounding country, and appreciate their sympathy and assistance in our great sorrow. In our closing out

Courier
Bargain
Day

18

The above announcement means money saving to hundreds of Daily Courier subscribers, for Courier Bargain Day has become an institution and an increasing number take advantage of it from year to year.

Courier Bargain Day occurs on September 18, the Anniversary of the establishment of the Daily issue of the Courier. On that day, and that day only, the price for one year's subscription is reduced to

FOUR FIFTY

Strictly in advance. Present subscribers may take advantage of this opportunity to save money if their subscription is paid to at least September 1; others may secure this privilege by paying all arrearages at the regular rates.

These rules are held to strictly, and no subscription will be received at the $4.50 rate after the 18th unless sent by letter, the postmark bearing the date of the 18th.

To accommodate those who can not rely on their own memory, we will accept checks now, but they will not be cashed nor receipts issued until the 18th, although subscriptions may start at any time.

$6 per year Bargain Day Saves you $1.50 50c per month Saves you 25%

On previous years $4 was the rate. The increase in price is made necessary on account of the increase in cost of production, the white paper alone costing 70 cents per year for each subscriber more than in previous years.

Last year dozens were disappointed, owing to forgetfulness, and were obliged to pay the regular price. This year they will remember, but others may forget. If you forget, it costs you money.
