LIBERTY LOAN FACTS
 The second Liberty loan consists of three billion dollars in bonds paying four per cent interest per year, due in 25 years, and convertible into any bonds issued by the United States during the war which may bear a higher rate of interest. When you buy a $100 bond you receive a promise from the United States government to repay you $100 at the end of 25 years with interest at the rate of 4 per year. The United States has never failed to pay its bonds when they became due. The credit of the United States is the highest of any country in the world.

As these bonds are convertible into any U. S. bonds issued later during the war bearing a higher rate of interest, you are practically sure of being able to sell them at any time during the war at about what you paid for them.

After the war, if within say five years United States credit should sell as before on approximately a three per cent basis, you could then sell these four per cent Liberty bonds as high as $115 for a $100 bond. Is there any more attractive investment in the world? Subscribe now at your bank.

PAY-UP WEEK
 Four years ago a new idea was sprung upon the business world. It was the holding of a national "Pay Up Week." The idea took at once. It demonstrated that a very large part of the credit situation was simply a matter of procrastination. Like "Clean-Up Week," it required only the special calling of the attention to the need of doing a certain thing, and asking everyone to do it at the same time, to get it largely attended to.

This scheme has actually created a desire on the part of citizens to pay their bills. By clever advertising, the desire was created just as is the desire to possess a certain thing or take a certain trip or see a certain play. The same principle that created a nation-wide market for a certain produce were invoked to create a nation-wide movement to clear the ledger sheet and start in afresh.

The credit business means a constant pressure upon every business man. While credit is necessary in business; in fact the business world would hardly be able to get along without it, it is woefully abused in the retail field. The retailer has not the means to size up the customer to whom he is asked to extend a line of credit as has the jobber or the manufacturer. The same is true of the professional man. Thus the plan which creates the general movement to clean up outstanding debts, has found a welcome among business men. It has made good. When a man pays a debt, he enables the fellow to whom he pays to settle another account, and so on in an almost endless chain. The payment of accounts means more circulation of money. It means more business in the community. And all the time there is not more money present or owned, the money that is there is simply made to work.

There are probably thousands of dollars in book accounts in this city which can be paid because those owing them have or can get the money with which to settle. The business men need the money to buy merchandise and enlarge their operations. In these times of war, it becomes more than a mere business duty, it is a patriotic duty to do your share toward keeping business on a normal, healthy basis. The fourth annual Pay-Up week will be October 29 to November 3, 1917. Let every citizen of this community do his share and make for the prosperity of Grants Pass by "celebrating" this important effort.

Cleaning Aluminum.
 Most women like aluminum ware, but many who pride themselves on the dainty appearance of their cooking utensils will not have one piece of aluminum on their shelves. It is a greasy, black or gray when not bright and clean. You can take any worn spoon, pan, kettle and bucket and restore them to their original luster by rubbing them with steel wool. This wool is as fine as hair and is used in all upholstering departments to smooth varnished surfaces for a second coat of varnish. If you use it on aluminum it will surprise you, for nothing, unless a strong chemical is used, will give the same beautiful finish.

SAMPLE OF LIBERTY BREAD IS SERVED

To the kindness of Mrs. Looney, who is visiting here from Sacramento, we are indebted for a sample of the much talked of "Liberty" bread. The executive committee of the Red Cross who met at luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce, Friday, were most enthusiastic over it. The sample came from a bakery in Sacramento, which in July made the first trial of it, putting out five hundred loaves, on the first day, which sold out so readily and the demand increased so rapidly that now the output of three thousand loaves daily, does not supply the demand. The bread is put up in attractive wrappers, with the status of liberty on them, and is made from two-thirds barley flour, the other third consisting of rice, corn and wheat flours. It is a most delicious and nutritious bread, and its use will conserve two thirds of the much-needed wheat flour, which may then be sent to Europe, where its demand is so urgent. Housewives will be interested in knowing that barley flour in California costs 20 cents less a sack than wheat flour. An effort will be made, if there is a demand for it, to have the grocers keep it in stock here. The following tested recipe for home baked bread is vouched for by Mrs. Looney, who is a Red Cross nurse.

 "Liberty" or Barley Bread
 1 pint lukewarm water.
 1 level tablespoon sugar.
 1 level tablespoon salt.
 2 level tablespoons shortening.
 1 yeast cake dissolved in 1/4 cup warm water.
 4 cups barley flour.
 2 cups wheat flour.
 Make it into a stiff dough, knead it well, let it rise until double its bulk, knead well again, shape into two loaves, let rise and bake for five or six minutes longer than white bread.

Charity is a universal duty which it is in every man's power sometimes to practice, since every degree of assistance given to another upon proper motives is an act of charity, and there is scarcely any man in such a state of indigence as that he may not on some occasions benefit his neighbor.—Johnson.
