CULLINARY EXPERTS GIVE POTATO DISHES

San Francisco, Dec. 26.—With a meatless day and the expressed desire that the people of the United States cut down the use of meats on other days of the week as far as possible, the culinary experts of the United States food administration for California have evolved a number of palatable dishes with the potato as the basic ingredient...

Potato Pie—To 1 quart of hot boiled potatoes add enough hot milk to moisten. Season with butter and salt. Mash in kettle in which they were boiled and beat with a fork until light. Stir in 1/2 cup of minced ham. Have ready 4 hard-boiled eggs and 1/2 cup of stock or gravy. Arrange potatoes and sliced eggs in dish in alternate layers with potatoes forming the top and bottom layers. Moisten with the gravy. Brush over the top with milk or egg and brown in hot oven.

This dish can be arranged in three layers with the middle layer some kind of meat hashed together with egg or thickened gravy.

Potato Turnovers—Boil and put through the ricer enough potatoes to measure a pint. Add 1 well-beaten egg, 1 tablespoon of flour and season with salt. Turn on floured board, roll out and cut in circles size of saucer. Place on each a large spoonful of dry hash seasoned with onions and parsley chopped fine. This hash should be dry or bound together with thickening. Double over and pinch together like a turnover. Place on greased baking sheet and brown in hot oven. Serve with a thickening sauce made from the gravy in which the meat was cooked or with a tomato sauce.

Family Potatoes—Use 6 cold or freshly boiled potatoes. Cut into quarters and put in saucepan with a pint of gravy or soup stock. Add 1 chopped onion, salt and a little pepper. Simmer on back of stove half an hour before serving.

Potato Roll—Heat 1 pint of mashed potatoes and 1/2 cup of milk in saucepan. Add 1 tablespoon of chopped parsley, salt and a little red pepper or paprika. Stir in 4 well-beaten eggs and mix thoroughly. Remove from fire and beat until light. Heat 1 tablespoon of fat in frying pan, and spread the potato mixture evenly over the pan. Cook until golden brown. Roll like an omelet and serve smoking hot.

Red pepper, or paprika, is preferable to black pepper in these potato dishes.

SACRAMENTO MERCHANT CLAIMS BRIDE XMAS

One of the most delightful social events of the merry yuletide season was the home wedding Christmas evening of Mrs. Mabel Goodnow Looney and Chas. Walrath, of Sacramento, Cal., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Goodnow, 735 North Eighth St.

The beautiful and impressive ring service of the Episcopal church was read by Rev. O. R. Hammond, of Trinity church, Ashland. The dignity and simplicity of the entire affair made it distinctive and charming. The bride was most attractive, in a gown of soft shimmering sand-taupe satin, with point lace collar. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served in the dining room made festive for the occasion. With the exception of Ralph Looney, who is "somewhere" in his country's service, Percy C. Walrath Jr., who could not be present, the entire family of the bride and groom were at the wedding, and also a few invited friends.

Many beautiful and useful presents were given the bride, both here and waiting for her in her city home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walrath left on the evening train Christmas night for their future home in Sacramento.

Those present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Goodnow, Oliver C. Goodnow of this city, and John Goodnow and wife of Portland, Miss Helen Hall, Mrs. M. E. Taylor and Mrs. Alice Mallory.

Many acres of runout alfalfa and clover meadows on Thompson creek and other localities near here are being plowed under for spring wheat and barley. Some new land is being brought under cultivation, also. Grain acreage will be increased fully 50 per cent the coming season.

At a special meeting last Saturday of the Thompson Creek Irrigation Association it was decided to enlarge the ditch to full capacity of original plans. Officers were also elected for the ensuing year. Several acres more land will be taken under irrigation next year.

Lee Goodman is busy with his drag saw. Everybody who could has cut a few 4 to 5-foot pines and firs for their years wood. Mr. Goodman and wife are now traveling in a Ford roaster, recently purchased.

The following persons were at Medford this week for the purpose of taking their examinations for army service—Geo. Mee, Roy Goodman and Dick Hoffman, and perhaps others of whom your correspondent did not learn.

Mrs. Warren D. Mee and son, Charles, have been in Central Point all this week. The latter is under Dr. Poellnitz's treatment for a seriously injured ear drum.

Mrs. Drusilla Mee is spending the holidays at Central Point, guest of her daughters, Miss Mary A. Mee and Mrs. Emma Bebb, and her father and mother, Geo. Hesselgrave.

Mrs. Pauline Elmore and son, Herbert, are possessors of a new Ford, which they recently purchased they say with "turkey" money. Who says it does not pay to raise turkeys?

Mrs. M. D. Hogan has been quite sick for the past week.

Miss Lizzie Elmore, teacher of the Meadows school in Rogue River valley, is spending her holiday vacation with her mother, Mrs. Pauline Elmore, having come last Sunday.

Mrs. Horace Blevins made a trip to Medford Tuesday.

Roy Johnson recently purchased the Tom Herriott portable sawmill on Applegate and moved it to his farm on Thompson creek. He also purchased the grist mill that was on the Prasley ranch. The operations of these mills will be a great accommodation to the people of this community. The earlier farmers realize there is a big saving in grinding all their grain before feeding the better for them. Universal cutting of all alfalfa and clover before feeding would save farmers thousands of dollars annually.

Steps Drive Business Away.

Store entrances now are flush with the sidewalk, or as nearly so as conditions will permit, observes a merchant in the New York Sun. We storekeepers are aware that customers are more likely to walk straight into a store when unimpeded than to go up even one short step. Banks were the last to realize the handicap imposed by steps at the entrances, and you don't see architects planning bank buildings now with steps at the front as they did in the old days.

ALL ENEMIES MEET IN BERNE

Streets Are Thronged With Thousands of Men Who Have Been Interned—Must Wear Uniforms.

At any time of the day in the Swiss capital one sees the uniforms of both sides on the streets, for there are thousands of French, British, German and Belgians interned in Switzerland, and according to the rules of the game, they must wear their uniforms, in order to make the breaking of parole harder, writes Will Irwin in the Saturday Evening Post.

My first sight of a German Fritz clumping down the streets in his neutral green uniform and his stout military boots gave me a kind of shock of surprise. It is three years now, since—in Belgium—I last beheld a free man in a German uniform. Today I saw dozens of men in French uniform pass other dozens in German uniform. Each party to these meetings would look straight ahead, pretending he had not noticed.

For the benefit of the entente peoples the shops are displaying such signs as these: "Swiss Manufacture," "Same Composition as —, the German Preparation, Out of Strictly Swiss Origin." "This Line Made of Swiss and English Material." Knowingly to buy German goods is the same cardinal sin among the French, American and English colonies here.

Just Pieces of Paper.

Apropos of a recent financial magazine's downfall, a depositor remarked to a bank official that he thought that the man in a subordinate position who handles large amounts of cash is subjected to a greater temptation than the "high financier." "Not so," was the answer; "I was a paying teller for ten years, and I can assure you that handling cash in large amounts is absolutely like handling simple pieces of paper with numbers on them. It is the mathematics of accounting that interests a cashier—the keeping of those bits of paper in perfect order. The question of what he might do with the bills never enters a busy paying teller's mind."—The Outlook.
