LENINE - TROTSKY

The Bolshevik. It is a familiar name, but of recent origin in this country. The whole nation has been interested in and puzzled by it. It is divided into two parts, Trotsky and Lenine, both new characters in world affairs and of obscure and grating origin.

In plain words, Trotsky and Lenine are nothing more or less than anarchists, entrusted with a little temporary power which such creatures always abuse to the utmost limit.

Under the Bolshevik government Russia has descended from a mighty nation of the earth to a helpless hulk, groping and simpering at the feet of the world's greatest tyrant.

If Russia had fallen down and was compelled to withdraw from the war, what will she do now, with her armies disbanded, her leaders in hiding, and no one to defend her?

alone, says Secretary McAdoo. The banks of this country can not alone sustain America's needs in this war and extend to our allies the essential aid which they must have to continue the war.

The rich of this country can not do it alone; the men of this country can not do it alone; the women of this country can not do it alone; but all of us, the people of the United States, disregarding partisanship, forgetting selfish interests, thinking only of the supremacy of right and determined to vindicate the majesty of American ideals and secure the safety of America and civilization, can do the great and splendid work which God has called upon us to do.

SEND CHEERFUL LETTERS

Certain types of letters ought never to be sent to the men at the front. One is that written by the selfish or thoughtless woman whose closely written pages are blurred with her tears, and taken up with her own sorrow in having her soldier so far from home, and her plea for him to come back at once, since everything is going wrong without him.

"You see," the young soldier told the Young Men's Christian association man, "I got word from mother and she was so worried about my going wrong over here, and so sure that I had inherited alcoholic tendencies from my father, that I got desperately blue, and went on a spree to forget all about it."

THE TRUE SPIRIT

Mr. Editor: That the young folks in this city have a proper sense of patriotism has been emphasized in the Randle family: Ted Randle a little boy has been laboriously making a stamp collection for some time and had a book well filled with all denominations of U. S. postage as well as foreign and one day this week on his own impulse he took his book and cut out every German stamp and burned them.

VERITAS.

REMOVE TEMPTATION

When the citizens of Grants Pass are requested by the government not to eat pork on Tuesday and Saturday of each week, why are the meat markets allowed to place it on sale on these days?

It is a well known fact that the housewives of this city, as well as other cities of Oregon are placed in an unpatriotic light by their husbands who insist on buying the meat for the family, and who, for some psychological reason must have pork on Tuesday and Saturday, and who, on the other five days of the week are perfectly oblivious of the fact that pork is on sale.

Is it not time that those in authority see to it that temptation is placed out of the reach of the "weaker half" and give the housewives of Grants Pass a chance to show their well-known patriotism honestly?

HOUSEWIFE.

To Revive Corks.

After corks have been used a while they sometimes become so compressed that the contents of the bottle leak out. This may be remedied by putting the corks in boiling water and leaving them until the water cools.

Jerusalem's History. At the time of the birth of Christ Judea, in which the city of Jerusalem was situated, was a possession or dependency of Rome. In the year 70 A. D. about thirty-five years after the death of Christ, Jerusalem was captured by the Romans under Emperor Titus and was destroyed.
