Robbery at Medford—

Sheriff Lewis was this morning notified to be on the lookout for a man with a No. 12 shoe. The Ulrich store in Medford was robbed last night, the thief getting about $50 in cash, a check for $75 and other aticles. The only clew he left was the prints of an extra large shoe, which measured fully 12 inches long.

Not Isaac Newton—

The Courier apologizes to Sir Isaac Newton. Through a slip of the typewriter yesterday in relating a fishing story the name of the discoverer of the secret of gravity was used for Isaac Walton. It is hardly thought that the discoverer of the binomial theorem and the secret of gravity would have considered the art of angling more than a waste of time. Both lived at the same time, Walton being born in England nearly 50 years before Newton. Newton was a famouth mathematician, while Walton was an author, who is chiefly remembered by his treatise on angling.

Names Were Omitted—

In giving the last of the third Junior Rainbow Regiment yesterday two names were accidently omitted. Kelton Straeder, Fred Dodge and Lawrence Gentner should have been included.

Juniors Earning Money—

The Junior Red Cross societies of the Junior high school, the East and the Riverside schools are out to make some money needed in their work and on Saturday they will have a sale in the building next the Clemens drug store. Each one of the schools will have articles for sale and will have their separate treasuries. The Junior high will also serve coffee; the East school will serve tea and wafers and the Riverside school will serve cake and sandwiches.
