IS IT WORTH WHILE?

This is the season of the year when many a boy begins to look with dread upon his books, studies and the confinement of the school room. That is a story as old as the history of education...

But that isn't the point just here. Every spring a number of youths completing the eighth grade or high school get it into their heads that they have gone far enough...

We have seen that force to be more compelling in taking boys from their studies than the necessity of helping to provide a livelihood for a large family or for a widowed mother.

Seldom does the boy under 18 realize what a superior advantage the educated man has in this world over the untrained brain. Most of them, like the stesta-indulging Mexican, dreams under his banana tree...

But they must be trained, efficient men, and many a waster has been heard to make the remark that "if I had enough education I would try for one of those jobs."

By this time it is too late. Their school days are over and but very few can ever pick up from where they left off and catch up with their wiser brethren.

Aside from the fact that every day spent in school is valued at something like $11 up to the time of finishing high school, and more than that for a college degree...

To the boy who is about to commit homicide to a future successful career by cutting his education off at the pockets, a word of caution is given.

If you buy out of town and I buy out of town and we buy out of town and they buy out of town, who in the deuce is left to buy in town?

MEXICO TRIES UNCLE SAM'S PATIENCE

El Paso, Texas, Apr. 18.—The United States has gone to the very limit in dealing with Mexico in an effort to maintain friendly relations with that country.

"There is not the slightest reason why we should not continue at peace with Mexico, if Germany will only keep her meddling spies out of that republic," the secretary continued.

FEDERAL FARM LOAN SYSTEM A SUCCESS

Washington, Apr. 15.—The federal farm loan system has been in active operation just a year, and has demonstrated that it is a success, according to a business summary issued by the farm loan board.

"The twelve federal loan banks have received applications for over 120,000 loans, amounting to about $300,000,000," says the board's statement.

"Notwithstanding the unusual expenses incident to the operation of new machinery and to the appraisal and determination of title on many loans that have not yet been closed, the expense of the banks in doing business has been within such limits as to justify the expectation of the farm loan board that these banks will easily be able to operate on a difference of one-half of one per cent between the loaning rate and the rate which they pay on their bonds.

"None of the banks, of course, received any appreciable income from their business during the first half of the year, but during the last half the business of the Spokane Federal Loan bank, for example, was sufficiently profitable to come with about $10,000 of wiping out the excess of expenses incurred in the first half, and the volume of business on its books assures it a handsome surplus for the second year.

"Every borrower, when he takes out his loan, makes a subscription which increases the stock of the federal land bank to the extent of five per cent of the amount borrowed. These stock subscriptions of borrowers, in the case of several of the banks, are now so large that, in accordance with the provisions of the act, the retirement of the original stock of the banks, which was principally subscribed by the government, will begin within a few months."

One Hundred and Forty-Two Years of Labor and Struggle

THE American people fought their first battles for liberty and the rights of self-government one hundred and forty-two years ago.

At that time, and for many years thereafter, their realization of their national aspirations and of the goal toward which they were really striving was vague and indistinct.

The immediate need is the investment of our money in LIBERTY BONDS!

These institutions must be preserved. The structure so laboriously reared in these one hundred and forty-two years will be utterly destroyed if we do not spring to its defense with every atom of our energy and determination.
