MESSAGE FROM AMERICAN WOMAN IN FRANCE

A cablegram sent to the American committee for devastated France by Mrs. A. M. Dike, director of the work in France, reads:
"We are desperately busy caring for refugees in great distress. All our children have been transported to Audignecourt, and I have opened another branch at Vic-sur-Aisne. More than ever we must be prepared to help a magnificent nation 'carry on.' France is looking to America.
"The morale of our evacuated families is marvelous. All are depending upon us to protect their interests. They regard the civilian committees with positive affection.
"It is vital that our plans for meeting the food problem should be reinforced. It is our turn to work with increased devotion to the cause of the allies. Do not hesitate to lay emphasis on the necessity to carry on the cultivation of crops. Send over all possible assistance to this end.

"Everything is going well. Our entire unit is well, but desperately busy. It is more imperative than ever that we 'carry on' in all branches of our work.

"Congratulate our committees from American Red Cross on their spirit and devotion. The gratitude of the French and their spirit and courage are the marvel of the age. The American Red Cross is supporting us to the limit and will continue to help."

Third Liberty Loan

By Celia Louise Crittenton

Seriously considered, with insight and understanding, the Third Liberty Loan means but one thing—stability. The unification of Government and people.

The much or little which the people place at the hands of the Government, proportionate to what they possess, will have behind it not alone the voice of the people but as well the united will and force of the people against a war which threatens to engulf the whole national family.

We are being just to ourselves if we place our money where it is safe. And we are living up to the dictates of our national conscience, which also is our family conscience.

The most safe and reasonable investment possible is with our Government. For the Government is but ourselves viewed through the magnifying glass.

If we were born in the United States we love our birthplace. It is home. If we were allowed to adopt the United States that offered to us more than our oppressing birth-country; offered to us more freedom, a wider scope, then through that adoption we have gained a privilege worthy of even greater devotion and love.

So, let us all be glad that a Third Liberty Loan is pending. It is a good sign that we trust ourselves, that we are ready depositors in the Protective Bank of Home.

"Keep the home fires burning" is no light slogan, lightly spoken. Only when the fire is quenched by a bomb dropped down through the home-chimney, can we fully realize how precious and prized is that cherished and cheerful flame.

We must not and shall not wait for that.

The Third Liberty Bond awaits us and we are ready.

THREE SONS ON THE TUSCANIA

San Francisco Woman Gave Country Three Soldiers--One Lost With Torpedoed Transport.

TWO SONS SENT TO FRENCH FRONT

Mrs. Louise Moore of 139 First Avenue, San Francisco, knows the meaning of war. In the front window of her home a service flag shows three stars. Three of her sons answered the call to colors.

And when the Tuscania was torpedoed, with the loss of more than one hundred American lives, her eldest son, William Moore, made the great sacrifice for his country. On the rocky coast of Ireland he lies buried in the grave which enfolds others of his comrades in arms.

The other two sons of Mrs. Moore, who were also on the Tuscania, are listed among those saved. The joy over their safety has been tempered only by the grief which followed the word of William's passing.

"I told those boys I was sorry that there was occasion to go to war," said Mrs. Moore, smiling through the anguish that was her portion in the days following the Tuscania disaster. "But I told them also," she added with a triumphant smile, "that if our country was worth living in and enjoying when things were going along smoothly, it was certainly worth fighting for when it was in trouble."

That is the spirit of American motherhood in these days of trial and sacrifice. "Our country has not asked much of its young people in the way of sacrifice," said Mrs. Moore. "Things have been fairly easy for most of the boys and girls of this generation. Now it is their time to show how they have appreciated all that has been given to them."

Mrs. Moore has two other sons, one of draft age, and the other old enough to enlist but not old enough to be drafted.

"Now they're crazy to go," said the brave little mother whose service flag already has one halved star.

"Do you know the last thing the three boys did before they left?" she asked with motherly pride. "They all bought Liberty Bonds, and said they would leave the rest of that work to us. Now we know what we can do."

Private William Moore and his brothers have left a message for the stay-at-homes in America to heed. "The rest of you buy Liberty Bonds—that can be your work."

Have you planned to buy your next one, now that the Third Liberty Loan is called for?

THREE MEALS COST $14,000

Feeding 42,500 troops at Camp Lewis, Seattle, three meals a day will cost the Government $14,000, and in the preparation of the meals 131 tons of food will be used. Money is needed to buy the food. That's why the Government will ask you soon to buy Liberty Bonds of the Third Liberty Loan.

How Your Own Row.

If you are indifferent, if you think hard work beneath you, then you are a hopeless proposition. Influential friends may indeed answer your call and do their utmost to keep you retained in the position you longed to secure, but if you have not developed or tried to develop the "talent" you were so sure you possessed, your time is short in the "big" place, and the quicker you awaken to this fact the better it will be for you and all concerned.
