U. S. Investigates Wheat
L. H. Hughes, who lives near Phoenix, has a stand of wheat which has aroused considerable comment among local ranchers. Last year Mr. Hughes threshed 300 bushels from five bushels of seed, and the government has been sufficiently interested to send a man to investigate. He will arrive in a few days to take pictures of the field and secure data. Mr. Hughes' brother, E. P. Hughes, formerly of Grants Pass, has also had marvelous success with the wheat,—which grows luxuriously, even in a dry season, and has heads of enormous size—Medford Sun.

PRESIDENT KERR TO SPEAK IN GRANTS PASS

"Suppose France should collapse as a result of lack of food, due to the unwillingness or neglect of America to make the necessary sacrifices to supply her soldiers and citizens, what would become of the rapidly growing American army at the French front?"

This is one of the disquieting possibilities of the food shortage mentioned by Dr. W. J. Kerr, president of the Oregon Agricultural College, in his series of talks on food and the war, which he is giving in Oregon as a representative of the United States government.

Dr. Kerr will speak at the chautauqua tent in Grants Pass on May 26 at 8:15 p. m., under the auspices of the various war defense organizations of Josephine county.

BOY SCOUTS SELL MANY THRIFT STAMPS

Horning's shack was a busy place Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock when the local troop of Boy Scouts went to his place in a body, sold thrift stamps and fed on Herman's ice cream. The reason for the visit was that Herman gave out a few days previous that he would buy $1 worth of thrift stamps from each of the boys who called. A notice was inserted in the paper and the boys were out in full force.

The notice in the paper gave occasion for many of the people whom Herman had "joshed" in time past to get it back on him—and they did by inferring that he was lacking in patriotism and demanding that he buy stamps. As a matter of fact Herman was one of the first to buy war stamps.
