China and the Bean. The bean plays an important part in Chinese domestic economy, and, according to East and West News, one of the specially desired qualifications of the Chinese matron, throughout the northern provinces, is her ability to concoct from beans—green, black and yellow—those staple dishes that the Chinese know as tau fea and liang fen.

BELOVED OF NEW YORKERS

Washington Square, Gothamites Claim, is Without Its Equal in the World for "Atmosphere." Here, say the New York men of ascetic faces and the women of soulful eyes, we have what our lives have long sought. Trafalgar square hasn't got it, the Place de la Concorde is too French, the parks and esplanades of Rio come a little closer. But here, in charming, quaint old Washington square, we have—atmosphere.

NO ONE ENTIRELY SATISFIED ORIGIN OF THE HOE CAKE

Wherever we are in this world we want to be somewhere else. I have a letter from a country boy who wants to live in the city, "where things are doing." I know his present setting: a place where the needs and comforts of man are supplied with the slightest effort. His placid, sun-baked village, in its parklike setting, glimpses the idealist's vision of the perfect life in perfect peace. All this seems to have palled on the taste of the young man and he yearns for the contentious, busy and dirty city.

WHEN JIM CLAIMED ANNIE

Maid Was Sorry to Leave, but as She Put it, It Was a Matter of Duty. Ellis Parker Butler, the well-known humorist, has a story in the American Magazine in which the main character says: "Well, Jimmy had been with the Burtons six years and Annie, our hired girl, had been with us five years. I guess everybody thought she hadn't any other name at all until one evening when Jimmy came over and knocked at the back door and asked whether Miss Dor-bacher was home. She wasn't, because she had gone to the Evangelical Lutheran church, but after that Jimmy used to come over, and Annie would put two chairs out in the yard under the apple tree and they would sit and talk. Or Jimmy would talk. He would talk and talk and talk, and every once in a while Annie would say, 'Yes,' and after she learned it, 'No.' So, after a couple of years, Jimmy began to hold Annie's hand when he talked to her, and in a couple of years more they got engaged. I guess they liked each other.

What Every Poet Knows.

The man of prosaic mind thinks that composition is a matter of so arranging words that they shall convey a meaning that is the sum of their separate meanings. But the poet knows better. He knows that it is a matter of so ordering them that they shall suggest verbally inexpressible meanings between the lines; that they shall, quite liberally, set spirits to dancing from sentence to sentence, flashes of intellectual electricity to leaping from page to page, faces to peeping forth at the reader from behind the letters like children from behind tree-trunks.—Harold Goddard, in Atlantic.

The Dense Oriental.

At a dinner in Edinburgh, says E. V. Lucas, Baron Kikuchi, principal of Tokio university, was a guest. An Englishman present told the story of a Scotsman who went to his dentist's with an aching tooth and was asked if he would have gas; he replied that he would, but should like to count his money first. Everybody laughed but the baron. A Scotsman attempted to explain the joke as to the alleged follies of his race; the baron remained impassive. Others tried, but the baron said, "I do not understand." Finally he stopped the explanations. "Gentlemen," he said, "you do not understand what I do not understand." His listeners gave rapt attention. "What I do not understand," he went on, "is not why the Scotsman said what he did, but how any Scotsman should not know, at any time, without having to count it, how much money he has in his pockets." The laugh was on the hosts of the "dense" oriental.—From Outlook.

What Makes Thunder Rumble.

Why does thunder rumble? The path of a lightning flash through the air may be several miles in length. All along this path the sudden expansion of the heated air—a true explosion—sets up an atmospheric wave, which spreads in all directions, and eventually registers upon our ears as thunder. Since the lightning discharge is almost instantaneous the sound wave is produced at very nearly the same time along the whole path. But the sound wave travels slowly through the air. Its speed is approximately 1,090 feet per second. Thus the sound from the part of the lightning's path that is nearest to us reaches us first, and that from the other parts of the path afterward, according to their distance. Intermitent crashes and booming effects are due chiefly to irregularities in the shape of the path.—Popular Science Monthly.

Driest Place on Earth.

The city of Payta, in Peru, is the driest place on earth. It is within five degrees of the equator, and the inhabitants see a shower on the average of about once in two years. Frequently, six or eight years elapse between rainfalls, but when a shower does come, it lasts usually from 12 to 20 hours. Strange as it may seem, there are seven species of annual plants which exist in this place, and the natives raise a kind of cotton with extraordinary roots, which go down far into the soil and obtain moisture from the bed of an old, dried-up river which once ran through Payta.

Eggs One Hundred Years Old.

A strange find was made at North-allerton, Eng., recently. While workmen were sawing through a large elm tree they came across in the very heart of the tree five dried-up starling eggs. The eggs were 18 inches from the external bark, and from the concentric ring it is estimated that they must have been deposited about one hundred years ago. It is surmised that when the tree was young a pair of birds had made their nest in a cavity, and for some reason the eggs were forsaken, and in course of time the wood grew around the hollow.

A Patriotic Duty.

We owe it as a patriotic duty to ourselves and our friends to keep in a happy frame of mind. With depressed spirits we cannot do our best. And now, if ever, we should keep ourselves in such condition that we can fulfill to the utmost every duty imposed upon us. Let us cultivate daily the happy frame of mind which makes the rest of the world laugh with us.
