

BIG CARNIVAL IN GRANTS
PASS SEPTEMBER 27-28

The local Red Cross organization will hold a street carnival in this city September 27-28. Great plans are being made for the occasion and there will be fun galore. There will be side-shows with great voiced exhorters to guide the crowds, probably an airplane for the kiddies, and many other things to keep you rubbering—and possibly dodging. You will be expected to come down town and mix with the people, to be one of the "bunch." Further announcement of the carnival will appear in the Courier next week.

COMING EVENTS

Sept. 15, Sunday—Second Annual Harvest Festival at Baptist church
Sept. 18, Wednesday—Courier Bazaar Day
Sept. 27, 28, Friday and Saturday—Red Cross Bazaar and Carnival

Parents Can Do Much to Assist Development During the First Six Years of Life.

What definite means can the home adopt for the best development of the child in the first six years of his life? First, with regard to the things which surround the child—furniture, pictures, books, toys, clothes and ornaments. In how far may these lend themselves to his development? In the room in which the child spends most of his time indoors, the furniture ought to be plain enough so that he can do no great harm in playing freely about. A small kindergarten chair and table to work on are almost indispensable in the child's room. A good blackboard should be hung securely on the wall, for from the hour he can toddle the child will delight in chalk markings, and these even then will have value because of the muscle development afforded the arm and hand.

The pictures on the wall in the child's room ought to be distinctly for him, and hung low enough so that he may take them down and handle them whenever he chooses. Every child likes color and delights in the "story picture," the picture which has a story connected with it.

The child may be taught to discriminate between his own things and those belonging to others by being allowed to visit the family living room where mother's and father's books and their pictures and furniture are used with care and caution. In this way it will also be possible to lead him gradually into an appreciation of the adult's standard of art in pictures, music and literature.

Petroleum in Biblical Times.
Natural petroleum has been used certainly since the time of Cyrus. It was known in ancient Biblical history, where it is described as "the salt of the earth." When such salt loses its savor it is only fit to be trodden under the foot of man, because on losing its volatile essence it becomes asphalt, which was used for pavements both in Nineveh and Babylon.

THE TRUTH ABOUT CANDY
Conserving the Candy Industry
It is not the wish of the government to disintegrate industry. When people realize the truth about the candy industry, they immediately see that candy is a wonderful food product, rich in nutritive values and a necessary food for people who work hard.
Sugar is recognized as a necessity. Yet few people take their requirements of sugar a spoonful at a time, like a big pill. Many people like the sugar in candy form. Thinking people realize that one man is entitled to his sugar in candy form as much as another is entitled to take his melted in coffee.
In 1914 (the last normal year in the industry), there were approximately 2500 candy factories in the United States, using about 8% of the sugar used in the United States. (Really a much smaller percentage than anyone thought.)
The capital invested in the industry was more than $110,000,000.
It was the thirty-eighth largest industry.
It employs normally one hundred thousand people, seventy-five per cent of whom are women.
It also makes possible, to a large extent, the chocolate and paper box industries, with millions invested, and employing thousands of people—mostly women.
There are still people who believe that the candy industry is using from 25% to 50% of the national sugar consumption, and that the wiping out of the industry would solve the sugar problem.
But, on the contrary, only 8% sugar is used normally, and to-day this has been cut to 4%.
Reasonable people, with these facts before them, are realizing that with only so small an amount of sugar going into candy, and in view of the high food value of candy, it is time to consider the facts and figures and to conserve in other directions for further savings.
—In normal times the candy industry uses only 8 per cent of the sugar used per capita in this country. Right now this amount has been cut squarely in two.
