OREGON WEATHER... Fair, gentle southwesterly winds.

WHAT HENRY IS DOING... Henry Ford, ex-pacifist, reports that he, his men and his plants are now "100 per cent for the war."

Among his numerous war products are "Eagle" boats, of which he expects soon to be turning out two every three days.

There are 5,000 stars in the Ford service flags, says the flier king.

FRENCH "TIGER" STANDS FIRM

No cleaner peace of victory has been heard, in these glorious weeks of allied success, than that of Premier Clemenceau, the "Tiger" of France.

The splendid victories of recent weeks," he says, "in which the spirit of our allies has so magnificently rivaled ours, has definitely settled the fortune of war.

"The results achieved are the first fruits of our harvest of rewards, the highest of which will be having delivered the world from ruthless oppression and brutality."

Here is fine proof that our French allies are one with us in the spirit with which we are fighting and the ideals that we are striving for.

Unless a woman feels that she can give her undivided time and attention, and conscientious service to the cause for which America and her allies are fighting, she must choose another kind of war work than canoe service overseas... "Keep silent, know nothing and shrug your shoulders," is the advice German officers are giving their men who might be taken prisoner.

SOLDIER LETTERS

Two Letters From Dana Ament Somewhere in France Aug. 4, 1918.

Dear Folks: No doubt you have noticed a gap in my letters, and possibly you will have surmised the reason from my last letter.

Our company is now billeted on a beautiful chateau grounds and the long rows of "pup" tents in which we sleep and spend our leisure during the frequent rains, form an imposing little village.

Just what our special work will be in this sector is not known to the most of us. Of course it will be road work of some sort or another near the line of advance, we hope.

Aug. 12, 1918.

Well, I have been on the hike since I wrote you last, and today is sort of a day of leisure. We have been passing through some of the interesting parts of France, and at present are camped in one, and I might say a hot one, too, from several points of view.

Today being quite warm a number of the boys can be found at the principal municipal bath or wash house.

have a shell hole in it. The wash houses are a common thing in the French village and are generally square, built of stone with the roof sloping in to the center but not completely closed.

There are about 40,000 flies here to the square inch. They are nice fat amiable ones who don't even bother to fly away when you shoot them.

Well, I'll close and hike over to and see if they have established a Y. M. C. A. there or not.

From Ben W. Coutant On Active Service with A. E. F. France, Aug. 18, 1918.

Dear Folks: Have your letter of July 7th. It came the 14th of August. Was right glad to get Ralph's address, but when I went to find him I found that he had been transferred to another division.

We are now camping in the woods about five miles east, the way the crow flies, from the last one, and I can't imagine it being permanent.

I can't tell you what I have seen but I can say that I have seen a thousand different thing of interest which I can tell you about when I get home.

All indications show that we are to get a little more pick and shovel work, and yesterday they made a trip somewhere and returned with a whole truck load of picks and shovels and hammers.

On the board is a notice or rather a week day schedule: 8 first call, 6:15 breakfast, 8:52 assembly of details, 12 dinner, 5 recall, 5:30 supper, 9:30 taps. Can tell you more about it next Sunday.

In our trip over here we had the impression that it was only five miles, but I can vouch for it being ten by the way the French roads go. It reminds me a great deal of Northern Idaho and Eastern Oregon only there are more woods here.

A French officer said once that the French were fighting for their country, the English to keep the Germans out of England and the Americans for souvenirs, and this outfit is about the average.

They call this the scavenger company for as soon as we arrive at a new camp, the gang starts out hunting things both to use and for souvenirs. Last week there were several fellows out in one direction and came back carrying a piano.

Enjoyed looking over Jean's letter and chewing her stick of gum. We have to walk miles to get any candy or gum, but we get it.

Am inclosing six kodak pictures and a piece of birch bark. The latter is valuable as a souvenir but I can't tell you why at present, but maybe I can later.

Must get this mailed before dark and get my bed made. Heaps of love. WALLACE.

WHILE AT WAR WOMEN SUFFER AT HOME

EGGERS, OREGON—"I certainly owe a great deal to Dr. Pierce's Remedies; three different times they have saved my life. One time I had trouble with my lungs and the doctor said that I could not get well, I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it cured me."

ROSBURG, OREGON—"During pregnancy I was so poorly I could not keep a thing on my stomach and my head ached terribly all the time and I was so nervous. A friend told me about Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, I took three bottles and never had any trouble afterward. The first dose helped me. My baby was a nice, healthy child. I think 'Favorite Prescription' is simply great. I am glad to recommend it."—Mrs. C. A. FRISKO, 851 Mosher Street.

"Favorite Prescription" and "Golden Medical Discovery" are both put up in liquid and tablets. If not obtainable at dealers, send 10 cents to Doctor Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and he will mail trial package of either tablets.

National Mazda Lamps

HAVING too little light puts a strain on children's vision that they may never outgrow! Why not have plenty of light? National MAZDA Lamps give three times the light of old-fashioned carbon lamps without adding a penny to your light bill.
