OREGON WEATHER

Generally fair, light easterly winds.

THE REASON THEY RAN

It develops that the reason the British had to give up Baku, the ancient petroleum center east of the Caspian sea, was that their Armenian allies failed to support them against a Turkish attack. It would be a good deal easier for everybody to help the persecuted Armenians if they'd stand up like men and help themselves a little, yet we must not expect too much from the Armenians, for the reason that their spirit has been broken. They have been whipped so often that they don't expect to win. How different from the American Indians. One time an old Comanche chief said the reason his tribe never "licked" their boys was because they were afraid of breaking their spirit; their spirit once broken they would be cowards in battle.

Portland has boasted of the millions on deposit in her great banks; she has boasted of not having enough houses to shelter her immense dinner-bucket brigades; of having taken thousands of men from the interior towns to help in her war industries, and states that never in her history was business as good as it is at present—yet despite all this she could not raise her quota of the Fourth Liberty loan on schedule time. Poor Portland, she has the money, but hesitates to invest it in Liberty bonds.

It seems that Brisbane the Mighty sold his honor for a case of beer. At least the brewers put up the money for him to buy the Washington newspaper, and in return he was to boost the beer industry. It was a cinch for Brisbane for he already favored the German brewers. Once Hearst's $50,000 per year editor and one of the brightest editorial writers in America, Brisbane is now a common Hun beer booster.

"Only Foch knows when the allies will strike the decisive blow," says a Paris dispatch. It is possible that Foch knows just when the decisive blow will be struck. With Bulgaria and Turkey out of the game and Austria clamoring for peace, possibly Foch has lifted the corner of the veil and beheld the great coming event that will end Prussianism.

It was quite superfluous for Austria-Hungary to specify that her proposed informal peace conference would be "non-binding." Any agreement made by either of the central powers, whether formal or informal, will be non-binding, so far as they're concerned

QUALITY FIRST

The Belgians and Serbians are proving their mettle; are proving that they hold honor above a mess of pottage, and that they are among the best fighters on the globe. The survivors of these two pluckly little countries will be held in the greatest respect for aeons.

What fine news: A dispatch says the Americans are in a heavy battle and are killing large numbers of the Huns—fairly mowing them down. Fine, there will be just that many less outrages committed.

A dispatch says "20,000 new cases of influenza reported in army camps." What's the matter with that new government serum? The Spaniard may not be a hard fighter, but Spanish influenza is a sticker.

"Americans advanced in the teeth of a terrific, murderous fire," says the news from the front. Certainly they did; no one expected them to retreat—not even the Germans in the front ranks.

LELAND

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goff and baby, Miss Eva Bergland, Mrs. E. L. Ellis and Charlie Ellis had a very narrow escape last Thursday evening when the Ellis car, driven by Charlie Ellis for some unknown reason failed to make the turn in front of the Mackin building in Leland, and went over an embankment, down into the lower road and turned around heading into the ank and stopped right side up, with its occupants all still in the car, unhurt, with the exception of a few bruises and a bad shaking up. The front of the car was considerably damaged.

Mrs. Cribs of Medford returned home this week after a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. A. A. Porter.

Clarence Farleigh, who was drafted a few months ago and has been sick, has returned home, honorably discharged.

Mrs. Adah Morrison reports that her son, Don, who has been stationed in England for some time is now in France. Mrs. Morrison has the distinction of being the mother of three sons and one daughter now in the U. S. service and one more son in the next draft to go.

Robert Goff, wife and baby, Miss Eva Bergland and Charlie Ellis made a business trip to Grants Pass last Thursday.

Jno. DeVall made a business trip to Grants Pass Monday.

Gaines Miller made a call in Grants Pass Thursday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Goff, a daughter, September 21.

The streets of Leland are the the scenes of busy times this week. The Western Union linemen are busy repairing their lines, also there are two S. P. gangs stationed here now, the bridge carpenters and an extra gange working the track.

Brownie Hampton and wife have moved back to Grants Pass, having sold their ranch on Wolf Creek near Leland to E. L. Ellis.

Mrs. H. O. Williams and daughters were visitors in Grants Pass Saturday.

Mr. Newell Inman, of Placer, is on a prospecting trip in our vicinity.

Wm. Emerick has returned from Klamath county, where he has had employment for several months.

C. F. Foss and wife, of Grants Pass, are the guests of Mr. Foss' sister, Mrs. Henry Miller, this week.

Miss Ruth Walter returned home this week. Geo. Walters is also spending a few weeks with his parents before entering the U. S. service.

C. L. Hobart and A. A. Porter were out Friday in Leland making the Fourth Liberty loan drive.

John DeVall, Henry Walters and son, George, left for Kirk, Klamath county, one day this week.

REVOLTING OFFICERS AND MEN OF VON BOHEM'S ARMY SHOT

Paris, Oct. 1.—Dozens of non-commissioned officers and men of General von Boehm's army have been shot, following an attempt at revolt, according to advices from the Swiss frontier today.

Von Boehm's army (German) has been severely battered in the present offensive operations of the allies.

National Mazda Lamps

HAVING too little light puts a strain on children's vision that they may never outgrow! Why not have plenty of light? National MAZDA Lamps give three times the light of old-fashioned carbon lamps without adding a penny to your light bill.

Physically Fit At Any Age

It isn't age, it's careless living that puts men "down and out." Keep your internal organs in good condition and you will always be physically fit. Watch the kidneys.

The kidneys are the most overworked organs in the human body. When they break down under the strain and the deadly uric acid accumulates and crystalizes, look out! Those sharp crystals tear and scratch the delicate urinary channels causing excruciating pain and set up irritations which may cause premature degeneration and often do turn into deadly Bright's Disease.

One of the first warnings of sluggish kidney action is pain or stiffness in the small of the back, high colored or scanty urine, loss of appetite, indigestion or rheumatism.

Do not wait until the danger is upon you. At the first indication of trouble go after the cause at once. Go to your druggist immediately. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules, imported direct from the laboratories in Holland, where they have been in use for over two hundred years. They will give almost immediate relief. If for any cause they should not, your money will be refunded. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. None other is genuine. In sealed boxes, three sizes.
