REASONS WHY WITHYCOMBE SHOULD BE RE-ELECTED

He is loyally, patriotically American.

He has faithfully cooperated with the president in every war time activity.

He was foremost of governors for preparedness and has earnestly supported a vigorous prosecution of the war.

He has stood for and insisted upon a square deal for both labor and capital, industrial development of the state and suppression of I. W. Wism.

He has for more than 20 years earnestly supported and vigorously advocated woman suffrage and prohibition and has stood for a better and cleaner state.

He did not assist in organizing the non-partisan league in Oregon, neither was he ever a worshipper at the shrine of populism and other organizations of doubtful purpose and loyalty.

He has conducted his office patriotically, fairly and economically—always has he placed patriotism and efficiency in the public service above party politics.

He has given his earnest consideration and substantial effort in promoting the happiness and comfort of the boys in the service of their country, and, lastly,

He has a record for a sound, business administration and loyal and earnest effort in the nation's present crisis that should command the approval and support of the whole people.

BREAKING THE LAW

In most cities there are laws that are broken every day, and by people who think nothing of the misdemeanor. Probably the law that is disregarded with the greatest impunity is the law relating to "jay drivers" and the one requiring that you properly turn corners with your car, and to use mufflers while driving through the city. There is also the speed law. Not so many break this law, yet there are always some in every city or town who cannot resist the temptation to "step on 'er tail" if they cannot see an officer of the law in sight. These fellows are pretty cute and the majority of them "get by" with it. They are hard to catch.

Then there is the fellow who takes the chance of killing a deer, a duck, a grouse or a pheasant out of season, and the man who hungers for brain food and dangles his hook in the brook after a trout.

QUALITY FIRST

Now as to which offense is the most unfair—the most unforgiving—in a question, as neither, while being violations of the law, are nothing serious. Public opinion and public sentiment are against the man who kills game or catches trout after the open season closes and he is held in greater disrepute than is the automobile driver who violates the law. Admitting that the man who catches fish or kills game out of season is a transgressor—a law-breaker—and should be dealt with accordingly, yet in so doing he takes no chance of killing a person or inflicting any great injury upon any one. He is merely catching a fish or bagging a bird that some "city chap" might get later on. Nevertheless, he does not by his act, show true sportsmanship and should not object to a nominal fine. But his misdemeanor or "cute corner" with his automobile, or speeds up while driving through a city or town. This person always takes chances of having a collision with another car, or of running a pedestrian down and possibly killing him—and his fine should be in proportion to the amount of damage he might possibly do.

Public sentiment is generally right but here is an instance where the game violator gets the worst of the deal—his crime is the lesser of the two.

Senator McNary and other members of the Oregon delegation are on the job at Washington attending to their official duties while contenders for their seats in congress are actively campaigning here at home. Voters will do well to retain in congress the men who are now faithfully representing the interests of the state and loyally standing behind the president and his prosecution of the war. This is no time to send new and untrained men to congress.

President Wilson certainly handled the German peace note in a clever manner. In brief, he made the Germans show their hand, yet said nothing that the rank and file of the German people can take offense at. The cards are face up on the table and its the Germans' next move.

Senator McNary was one of the 27 republican senators to support the Susan B. Anthony equal suffrage amendment. The measure failed to pass. Twenty-one of the 31 negative votes were cast by democratic senators. Oregon women should remember this when they go to the polls November 5.

Governor Withycombe has issued a proclamation declaring November 2 as Fire Prevention Day, and urges everyone to make a general cleaning up of rubbish.

TOO MUCH LIKE KAISER BILL

Ex-Sheriff of New York Town Has Made It Plain That "Potsdam Points" Don't Go.

Ex-Sheriff James Merritt, whose mustache grows as a sheriff's mustache should, has established a mustache censorship and outlawed the Potsdam points, according to a Port Chester correspondent of the New York Tribune. Until a few days ago scarcely an hour went by that the argus-eyed former sheriff patrolling the streets did not find at least one sky-pointing mustache of the kind made notorious by Wild Bill Hohenzollern. The tactics of the former sheriff upon spotting such a one were as tactful and as unvarying as those of a collecting agency. Placing himself in front of the wearer, he would fix a pale and unappreciative eye upon the offending mustache and stare and stare. Either the stare wilted or became curious or belligerent. Former Sheriff Merritt was ready for either result.

At the first evidence of embarrassment he would nod mutely toward the nearest barber shop, follow his victim until he entered and remained on post outside until he emerged without his mustache. If the mustached one inquired civilly what was wrong, the former sheriff would start as if awakened from a daze and explain that he thought he was confronting his old friend, "Pewter Cup Bill," the yachtsman. If the recipient of his stare wanted to know what was biting the former sheriff, Merritt went just as far with the inquisitive one as was necessary to persuade him into a neat coat of lather.

PIG'S PLACE IN MYTHOLOGY

Black Swine Considered Evil Because It Was Identified With the Black Clouds.

If we add an Irish "bull" to the story of the Roscommon pig, the vision of the small girl Belne might be described as an echo of certain events that occurred more than sixty centuries ago, when mankind was laying the foundations of civilization and its beliefs for all time. It carries our minds back to the mythical sow that is reputed to have suckled King Minos of Crete and the infant god Zeus-Dionysus; to the sacrificial pigs which the initiates into the Eleusinian mysteries washed in the waters of the Aegean; to the evil swine that determined the fate of Osiris, Adonis, Tammuz and Diarmid; and to a still earlier phase in the gropings after light and consolation when the sow was identified with the Great Mother, the creator of all, who, in her capacity as the moon and the sky, regulated the universe and controlled the destinies of mankind. Hence the pig was fate, and the black pig was evil because it was identified with the black clouds which obscured the light, at first in the purely literal and physical sense, but afterward in the ethical and moral acceptation of the phrase.—Manchester Guardian.

Deserves Preferment.
An Ohio man has invented a door-knob that when grasped in the hand illuminates an electric bulb placed just above the keyhole. A genius such as he deserves to be rewarded with a seat in the United States senate.—Rocheester Post Express.

Rat Bites Policeman.
Prohibition has its terrors. Witness Policeman Phillips, of the war emergency squad, who went prowling about a house suspected of harboring a "blind pig," in search of booze. Phillips found a suspicious-looking opening in the wainscoting and put his hand in, feeling about for a bottle of contraband. Then he drew his hand out and emitted a yell that brought his brother officers to him. "Did you find any?" they asked. "I found one," replied Phillips, "and the d—n thing bit me. It was a rat."

IT'S NOT YOUR HEART; IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. It attacks all classes, regardless of age, sex or conditions. A majority of the ill-afflicted people today can be traced back to the kidney trouble. The kidneys are the most important organs of the body. They are the filters, the purifiers of your blood. If the poisons which are swept from the tissues by the blood are not eliminated through the kidneys, disease of one form or another will claim you as a victim. Kidney disease is usually indicated by weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, despondency, headache, stomach trouble, difficulty when urinating, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gall stones, gravel, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago. All these derangements are nature's signals to warn you that the kidneys need help. You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The soothing, healing oil stimulates the kidneys, relieves inflammation and destroys the germs which have caused it. Do not wait until tomorrow. Go to your drugist today and insist on his supplying you with a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In twenty-four hours you should feel health and vigor returning and will bless the day you first heard of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil. After you feel that you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two capsules each day, so as to keep in first-class condition and ward off the danger of other attacks. Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. Three sizes. Money refunded if they do not help you.
