OREGON WEATHER

Fair; colder; heavy frost; gentle northerly winds.

KEEP THEIR SPIRITS UP

The whole world has been cognizant of the wonderful morale our boys have shown overseas—and America is proud of them. The American, no matter where placed nor how trying the circumstance, is noted for his courage, but there is a reason for the astonishing fighting qualities displayed by our boys over there. That "reason" is the fact that the boys facing the Germans know that there is a nation—one hundred million strong—backing them up in their fight to crush Prussian militarism.

The boys over there know that the American Red Cross, and other organizations in this country, are looking after their interests. And now another big campaign is on to provide funds to care for the moral, physical and spiritual needs of our boys who may this winter be wallowing about in the water-soaked trenches, faithfully doing their duty in keeping back the hordes of the kaiser. The organizations which will participate in this campaign to raise $170,500,000 for the American soldiers, are: The Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the War Camp Community Service, the American Library Association, the Knights of Columbus, the Salvation Army and the Jewish Welfare Board. The American Red Cross will not participate in the drive. These organizations will link the American soldier with his home, keep his morale firm and dispel gloom around his camp on the battle front.

To support these organizations in the coming campaign is to support your boy or your neighbor's boy with comforts and conveniences this winter. The amount to be raised is not large, considering that the United States is a powerful nation of one hundred million people. One dollar and seventy cents for each inhabitant will net the amount, and every cent is to be spent on the boys in the service. There is a spirit of co-operation among these organizations and the friends of each must work earnestly for the success of the whole drive. Don't fail to contribute to the fund.

Governor Withycombe has served Oregon faithfully, courageously and ably. He has fostered industry and agriculture, has appointed and sustained an honest and progressive highway administration, has refrained from chasing rainbows or recommending freak legislation, has been sound in his views on fundamental matters of public policy, has had a high conception of the dignity of the position of the chief magistracy of the state he loves and knows so well, has had a sympathetic and practical knowledge of the problems of the producers and has combined with that a realization that honest business enterprise must not be handicapped by theoretical restrictions, he has worked for state and congressional legislation that would help the development of the natural resources of the state, and above all he has been a tower of strength for patriotism.—Oregon Voter.

Senator Lodge, republican leader in the senate, says:

"There is no German government in existence with which I would discuss anything. I deplore at this stage, when we are advancing steadily to a complete victory, any discussion or exchange of notes with the German government.

"The only thing now is to demand unconditional surrender. I would leave that to Marshall Foch and the generals of the armies."

"If it (the United States government) must deal with the military masters and the monarchical autocrats of Germany now, or if it is likely to have to deal with them later in regard to the international obligations of the German empire, it must demand not peace negotiations, but surrender."—President Wilson.

There is a law in Oregon, prohibiting the sale of wormy or diseased apples, but the trouble is, the law is not prohibiting such sales. Like the man who said he could not be put in jail on a certain charge, nevertheless, he made his statement while looking through the bars.

Here is President Wilson's polite way of calling the kaiser a liar: "The nations of the world do not and cannot trust those who have been masters of the German policy." Teddy would have said "you're a liar," and let it go at that.

The water is so chilly these days that it takes a hungry man or a genuine sport to wade in up to his ears and pull out a fighting steelhead.

Foch will now proceed to send a few notes via the machine gun route. They're the kind the Germans understand.

Over on the western front the cavalry is proving its worth, once the Huns are driven from their holes.

Kissing is said to be a sure way to spread the "flu," but where is the American who won't take a chance?

Ham Honesty

YOU wouldn't give a child a bottle of poison to play with.

Yet when you let a child eat ham that is unreliable you run about the same risk.

Some ham, as you very well know, is not fit to eat. It's not properly cured, and it's kept from rotting by poisonous preservatives barred by the pure food law.

It is your duty to buy ham only where you know you'll get the real article. This is most important. Buy here.

MISUNDERSTANDING CLEARED UP

A misunderstanding relative to the canteen work of the Y. M. C. A. has been cleared up by the War Department, which issued the following:

"Matter of prices asked by Young Men's Christian Association for its articles sold in canteens overseas already investigated by war department and condition is being remedied. The Young Men's Christian Association was originally asked by General Pershing to run the canteens for the army on a cost basis. In order to do this it had to reckon in price fixing such overhead charges as transportation charges and marine insurance so that prices were much higher than in this country.

"The Young Men's Christian Association made no profits, but lost thousands of dollars. Arrangements now made will enable them to obtain supplies from sources that will reduce overhead charges and keep prices down."

Prisoners of Duty.

The Turkish government is shortly to effect an exchange of 1,000 British prisoners, but there will be still many left over there, and naturally they will need doctors. Under the Berne agreement of December last it is arranged that one British doctor and five of the medical personnel of the ranks should be detained for every 1,000 prisoners. No inspection of prison camps under the Berne agreement has yet been made, but it is very probable that conditions there may necessitate more doctors being detained. There are some things in warfare which are harder than actual fighting, and to stay behind in a prison camp tending wounded and nostalgic men when others joyfully set sail for home or active service requires all the unselfish devotion to duty with which doctors are credited by the laity.

HEAR THIS CALL from OUR HOME TOWN BOYS OVER THERE

LETTERS from our boys in the trenches and from the women in canteen and other war work, all bring to us the same message—SEND US NEWS FROM HOME.

World news is all right, but OUR BOYS want NEWS OF THIS TOWN. They want the home newspaper. Publishers are prevented from sending their papers free to anyone, even boys in the service. Consequently a national movement has been started by Col. William Boyce Thompson of New York, who is acting as President of the Home Paper Service of America to give the boys what they are calling for. Every community is joining the movement. Let us see that our boys are not forgotten.

Send to the publisher of this newspaper whatever amount of money you can—5 cents or $50.00. We will publish a list each week of those contributing, and the amounts contributed.

Every cent received will be used to send this paper to our boys at the front. If at the end of the war, there is any surplus, it will be turned over to the local Red Cross Committee.

There is no profit in this to the publisher—even in normal times, subscriptions are not sold at a profit. With war prices prevailing, and the high rate of postage on papers sent to France, our cost will scarcely be covered by our full subscription price.

Remember that over in France, some brave soldier or sailor from this town—perhaps even some splendid woman working within sound of the guns—is depending on you to "KEEP THE HOME LOVE KINDLED."

They are calling to YOU from "Over There" GIVE WHAT YOU CAN
