"CHUB" STILL MIXING IT WITH THE HEINIES

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Harvey of this city have just received a letter from their son, E. R. (Chub) Harvey, who is still with the Sixth marines in France. The Sixth marines have, so far as can be learned, been doing active fighting on the western front ever since landing in France, and they have made good in every instance.

In speaking of a recent engagement in which the marines took an active part, "Chub" says the Germans certainly put up a stiff resistance but that the Americans went through them just the same. He also stated that he had just returned from a 10-day stay on the firing line, during which time the marines never had a chance to wash their hands and face. "It was fine," says "Chub," to get back from the firing line and run our clothes through the 'coodle' bath.

"Chub" Harvey is a general favorite in this city and Glendale, and was one of the first young men to answer the call for volunteers when the war began.

GRANTS PASS BOY HAS GUN SHOT FROM HANDS

A late letter from Francis Speake, who formerly was in the employ of A. S. Coutant of this city, brings the intelligence from France that he is in a base hospital over there. He states that in one of the recent battles he was wounded in the hand and that a moment later his gun was shot from his grasp. Commenting on the war, Speake says "It is hell."

MRS. J. C. SMITH IS INFLUENZA VICTIM

Mrs. J. C. Smith, wife of Senator Smith, died Sunday morning at 4 o'clock from influenza, after an illness of but three days.

Mrs. Smith was born at Jefferson, Ore., January 28, 1866, and has been a resident of Grants Pass for the past 15 years, during which time she has been devoted to her family and a large circle of friends. She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Paul Schallhorn, of Portland, Mrs. P. P. Proctor and Josephine Smith, and by one sister, Mrs. T. B. Cornell.

The burial was at the I. O. O. F. cemetery this afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. P. K. Hammond, of Ashland, conducting a brief service.

OREGON HENS PROVE TO BE WORLD BEATERS

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Nov. 4.—Prof. James Dryden's Oregons not only won first place in the 52 week international egg laying contest at Storrs, Conn., but broke the international contest record by 92 eggs, according to a telegram received at the college. The total number of eggs laid by the 10 Oregons was 2,352, or an average of 235.2, as compared with 2,265 eggs, the previous record, held by Old G. Knight, of Bridgeton, R. I., whose White Wyandotte hens laid and average of 225.5.

This means that the Oregons, originated three or four years ago by Professor Dryden, are world beaters, the record having eclipsed that of 500 pens of 5,000 hens representing the best layers in the United States and foreign countries.

THEY HAVE STOOD BY THE WAR AND DONE THEIR DUTY

Senator McNary, Representatives Hawley, Sinnott and McArthur have all supported the president's war program and every war activity. They have measured up to their jobs. Each has a 100 per cent record for loyally standing behind the president. They are demanding that the war be won and won now. Could anything more be asked? Is anything more expected?

SERBIAN TROOPS AGAIN

ENTER CITY OF BELGRADE

London, Nov. 4.—Part of Belgrade the Serbian capital, has been recaptured, according to the Evening News, which says it has received unofficial advice to this effect.

"Serbian troops have reached the Danube between Semendria and Belgrade."

"On November 1 Belgrade was reached. The commandant of the First Serbian army has made a solemn entry into the capital. This entry occurred 45 days after the beginning of the offensive on the Macedonian front. Serbian troops united with the French and have crossed the Kolubara north of Valjevo and are marching on Chabatz, Montenegro. Forces of Jugo-Slavs have arrived at Podgoritz."

The Electric Laundry

Whether you do your own washing, hire a helper, or send the work out, you can save money, time and wear and tear by installing up-to-date home labor savers driven by

ELECTRIC MOTORS

You will be surprised to see how little it costs to run these motors. Their first cost is soon offset by the saving in labor. Less than a cent an hour will operate most of the machines for home laundry work. A couple of hours will suffice to finish a good sized wash the electric way.

Will you try one of these machines in your home?

PROTECT the SALMON INDUSTRY
VOTE 306 YES

The Willamette River Fish Bill

(also known as the Gill Fish Bill)

Is Vital to Oregon's Salmon Industry

Briefly, the purpose of this Bill is: To prevent the netting of salmon in the Willamette River and its tributaries south of Oswego, Oregon.

The Salmon Must Have a Chance to Reach Their Spawning Beds on the Upper River

If the Salmon Industry of Oregon, which totaled more than Seven Million Dollars this year (over Four Million Dollars of which went to the fishermen), is to advance and prosper, then the salmon must be allowed to propagate, instead of being caught in nets by a very few commercial fishermen who every season take salmon from the Willamette River and enjoy a considerable profit in a very few days. These are the very salmon so much needed for propagation work.

READ WHAT THESE TWO AUTHORITIES HAVE TO SAY IN FAVOR OF THE GILL BILL

"The passage of this measure is asked by the state authorities in charge of salmon propagation. It is well known that Mr. R. E. Clanton, Superintendent of Hatcheries, has advocated this measure for years, helped secure the passage of the bill in the Legislature, and is desirous that the voters of the state uphold this law. It is essential and important to secure the future supply of Spring chinook salmon in the Columbia River that voters in the state of Oregon should vote 306—Yes, in favor of closing the Willamette River to commercial fishing south of Oswego."

WILLIAM L. FINLEY, State Biologist

"If you want to build up the fisheries of Oregon instead of tearing them down, you will favor the Willamette River deadline bill."
"If this is your conviction, you should vote 306 X Yes."

CARL D. SHOEMAKER
State Game Warden and Acting Master Fish Warden
