REPUBLICANS CLAIM SENATE AND HOUSE--DEMOCRATS HOPEFUL

BOTH NEW YORK TIMES AND WORLD SAY THE G. O. P. WILL CONTROL

Incomplete Returns Indicate Republican Landslide--All Women Candidates For Congress Beaten--McNary, Mulkey, Hawley and Withycombe Elected

New York, Nov. 6, 2:08 p. m.—Republicans have reversed the democratic control of the house, on the face of incomplete returns at 3 o'clock today, both parties claiming the senate. Indications are that the race is close, and possibly a tie, in which event the vice president would cast the deciding vote.

The republicans have apparently seated 225 representatives, the democrats 191. Each has 45 senators. Six contests are undecided, three republicans leading and three democrats.

New York, Nov. 6.—Republican national headquarters issued a statement this afternoon, claiming a majority of at least five, and possibly six, in the United States senate.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The republican national committee claimed a safe majority in both houses today. They declare that 50 republican senators and 230 representatives have been elected, with good prospects of larger majorities.

The democratic national committee claims the senate is democratic by at least one; and also a margin of democrats in the house.

New York, Nov. 6.—Early today it is not apparent who will control congress.

The governorship in New York is so close between Governor Whitman and Alfred Smith, democrat, that the soldier vote may decide.

Senator Weeks of Massachusetts, Lewis of Illinois and Salisbury of Delaware, were all defeated.

Senator Clark is running very close to his republican opponent.

Representative Sherley, of Kentucky, democrat, is beaten.

Henry Ford is running far behind Newberry, republican, for the senate.

Folk of Missouri, has been defeated by Judge Spencer, republican, for the senate.

Joseph Cannon has been re-elected representative of Illinois.

All socialists in New York have been beaten; but Victor Berger of Milwaukee, has been elected.

All women candidates for congress have been beaten.

The normal school measure is 700 ahead in Multnomah.

Portland, Nov. 6.—Apparently the entire republican ticket has been elected.

McNary's majority is apparently greater than Withycombe's on the early returns.

Sinnott, Hawley and McArthur have been re-elected.

Oswald West today sent a telegram of congratulations to McNary. The supreme judgment is close, Bennett apparently leading.

Portland, Nov. 6.—Multnomah gave the following vote for supreme justice:

Olsen, 2,101; Cole, 1,634; Bennett, 1,245; Campbell, 576. Politicians think that Olsen is elected.

The normal school measure leads by 700 in Multnomah.

It is estimated that McNary will win by 12,000, Withycombe by somewhat less.

Multnomah gave the delinquent tax a thousand majority and the publication compensation measure 700 majority.

The Rogue River fishing measure carried in Multnomah by 122.

The Willamette river fishing bill carried by 1,100.

New York, Nov. 6.—Whitman, republican, is 32,000 votes behind Smith, democrat, according to the latest reports.

35,000 MEN WANTED FOR LIMITED SERVICE

Washington, Nov. 6.—A drive to secure 35,000 volunteers from limited service men urgently needed to fill special posts in the army, was begun today by the department of labor's employment service at the request of the war department. The men are wanted for duty in this country and will be used to release more active men for service overseas.

Only class 1-A registrants certified for limited service will be taken. All men volunteering will be inducted into the ranks as privates and promotion to higher grades will depend on ability. Branch officers of the employment service and community labor boards over the country will receive applications.

Some of the lines in which the limited service men are needed and the numbers wanted are:

Assemblers, 2,000; chauffeurs, 6,250; clerks, 1,102; cooks, 700; laborers, 3,175; mechanics, 4,450; motorcycle drivers, 1,225; transmission men, 1,500, and tire repairers, 400. One newspaper man and three motion-picture experts also are wanted.

HUNS, BROKEN, IN UTTER ROUT BEFORE ALLIES

SHATTERED ARMIES RAPIDLY RETREAT FROM BELGIAN LINE TO AISNE RIVER

140,000 BOCHE DIVISIONS BEATEN

Enemy Lose Thousands of Soldiers and Vast Quantities of Munitions—Many Villages Freed

Paris, Nov. 6.—Forced to a realization of the impending peril by progress of the British southeast of Valenciennes, and the French and Americans south of Sedan, the Germans' shattered armies are rapidly retreating from the Belgian frontier to the Aisne river.

The Germans are apparently not carrying out the orderly retreat that marked their retirement from the Marne and the Somme. Vast quantities of munitions are being captured.

On the Sedan Front, Nov. 6.—The German opposition has stiffened. They are using artillery, gas and machine guns.

Paris, Nov. 6.—As a result of the latest battle, which is still progressing, the allies have soundly beaten 140 German divisions, freed hundreds of villages and taken thousands of prisoners. The enemy's position, which was bad before now, may be considered desperate.

"LIES, HYPOCRISY" YELL THE BOLSHEVIKS

Moscow, July 21.—(Delayed)—A Bolshevik chorus of indignant protests met the statements of the American, British and Japanese governments to the Russian people, setting forth the reasons which impel them to dispatch troops to Russia. The editorials in official and non-official Bolshevik papers rivaled each other in the use of denunciatory language and abound in such expressions as "lies," "hypocrisy," "stupidity" and others of a similar character, all designed to convince the readers that the allies did not mean to help Russia but only to crush the Soviet government and draw the country into war in order to improve their own position on the western front.

GERMAN SWORD IS HELD OVER FINNS

Country Forced to Choose Monarchy By Threatening Attitude of the Huns—Have No Choice

Copenhagen, Oct. 10.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Finland became a monarchy instead of a republic solely because the Finns yielded to German domination according to a communication from the Berlin Vorwaerts. The correspondent asserts that up to April last the Finnish leaders were determined to organize a republic but in May the government withdrew the measure for its organization and advocated a monarchy, giving as its reason the fact that Germany desired it.

The Vorwaerts asserts that although the German government pretended to be neutral on this question, the political section of the German general staff supported a monarchy in Finland.

"In reality we were not free," writes the Finnish correspondent. "German troops were quartered throughout Finland and warships lay in Helsingfors harbor. The Finnish foreign minister announced in the Finland Diet in July that the German government wanted a monarchist government in Finland."

The Finnish communication asserts that some of the Finns refuse to recognize a German prince as a king of Finland.

The Vorwaerts predicts that a time will come when the German rulers of the new Baltic countries will be packed off home bag and baggage. It asserts that the German people have been kept in ignorance of the developments in Finland and that this has created a dangerous position for Germany in the east.

BLOND ESKIMOS, IN WHITE NORTH, NOT DISTURBED BY TURMOIL OF SOUTH FOLK

Seattle, Nov. 6.—"Sure they're 'blond Eskimos.' They are aborigines living up in the white Arctic on Victoria Land in their primeval state absolutely untouched by the outside world's civilization. They are completely out of contact with everything and, consequently, have none of our improvements and also none of our evils."

W. J. Bower, known along the Arctic coast as "Levi" Bower, one of the very few men who have gone from the outside into the far northern almost fabled land of the "blond Eskimos" thus described them when he was here recently.

"And I don't think it was Stefansson who first found them," Bower asserted. Vilhjalmur Stefansson, returned Canadian Arctic explorer, who has been credited with discovering the strange tribe, agrees with Bower that he did not find them first.

Bower claimed the "blond Eskimos" are really blond. Stefansson does not go that far but says they have light gray, almost blue eyes and a few have light hair and eyebrows. Bower pointed out that the "blond" natives have round full eyes while the other Eskimos of the far north have the slant eyes of Asiatics.

"It looks as if the 'blond Eskimos' come from early Greenlanders, or Scandinavian stock of some kind," Bower said. "I know they are not half white and half Eskimo because the half breed Eskimos have black eyes and black hair. These white ones have light eyes and light skin and hair. The old men of the tribe have the same white features as the young."

"They are hospitable, friendly and square, too square, I think. If you give them anything they are not satisfied until they give you something in return. I gave one woman an empty baking powder tin and she immediately brought me a big skin. "We left a gun with them. Instead of using it to kill meat, the men seemed to think it was a plaything for when I left they were shooting their bullets away at targets and wildly into the air. When they ran out of ammunition they probably turned the gun around and got some real use out of it as a club."

Bower said he thought there were over 250 "blond Eskimos" on Victoria Land. It is not very probable that they will ever be molested much by the outside world for Victoria Land is far off the usual run of traders and whalers go into the Arctic no longer.

Bower has served on whaling vessels in many parts of the north, and until his recent return to the states, had not been out of the Arctic for five years. On Stefansson's last trip he was steward on the schooner Polar Bear which Stefansson used for a time. Stefansson took Bower into the "blond Eskimo" country.
