OREGON WEATHER
Fair; heavy frost Thursday morning, light northerly winds.

WHAT THE NAVY IS DOING
Because there has been as yet no great sea battle, it might seem that our navy, up to date, had played little part in the war.

On the contrary, the increasing roll of victories on land could never have been accomplished without the navies, for to them belongs the credit for the transportation of men, supplies and food, falling which those victories would have been impossible.

The transportation of 2,000,000 American soldiers to France with a loss of only 300 is in itself a marvelous feat.

We now have 500 ships on duty in European waters. Our battleships with those of Great Britain hold the German fleet bottled in the North sea. At Archangel and Vladivostok the big ships stand on guard, while the destroyers and chasers ride the Atlantic day and night, hunting the U-boats to their death.

If following the traditions of the sea, the German battleships make a dash for freedom rather than tamely surrender, they will not catch us unawares. Our navies only wait the chance once more to prove themselves a fighting body worthy of their country's pride.

Colonel Roosevelt spent a great deal of his time in late years advocating national preparedness; when this nation entered the war he offered his own services; his four sons enlisted with his consent and approval; one has been severely wounded; another lies dead under the sod of France. Yet some people say he is a reactionary, is unpatriotic. Teddy has his faults—probably almost as many as some of those who condemn him—but to say he is not patriotic is giving oneself the lie.

The Finns were forced to choose a monarchy because the German sword was held at their throat. If the Finns will just wait a few weeks there will be no German sword and they can have a republic, which is their choice.

The Bolsheviks say the allies are "liars." The Bolsheviks might be likened to a hundred thousand men like Pancho Villa, turned loose in one concentration camp. The amount of hell they can raise is limited only by the scope of their territory.

In his speech on the 27th of last May Wilson said: "Politics is adjourned; the elections will go to those who think least of it."

A first class hanging bee is due in the Bolshevik camp just as soon as the allies finish Germany.

GRANTS PASS GIRL WEDS A CRESCENT CITY MAN

Russell Jennings, of Crescent City, and Miss Opal Madalene Hiller, of Grants Pass, were united in marriage by Rev. Melville T. Wire, at the Methodist parsonage at 7 o'clock, Tuesday evening, November 5.

Mr. Jennings is one of the enterprising young business men of Crescent City, having a large garage in that place. He cares for the cars of three stage lines; operates trucks and has chrome-hauling contracts from the government.

Miss Hiller is a popular high school girl of this city and an accomplished musician. A host of friends wish these young people happiness.

Convert Your 4% Liberty Bonds—

Holders of First and Second Liberty loan 4 per cent bonds should immediately convert into 4 1/2 bonds, otherwise on November 9th, 1918, they will lose the right of conversion for all time without any compensating advantage. The bonds should be handed to your local bank before Thursday, the 7th, which will give time for delivery at the Federal Reserve bank on the 9th.

P. S.

Not Post Script but pits and shells. Many fruit pits and nut shells have come in during the past two weeks, but the committee is urging that those who have not sent theirs in, do so right away. Each day a stronger appeal for pits and shells is received. What would you do if you heard a call for help from a man being gassed? Would you aid him then or wait until it was more convenient? That call has come to us and we must answer right away.

The influenza epidemic is holding back this campaign throughout the United States. Josephine County is therefore unusually anxious to turn in her supply as early as possible. Outlying districts are urged to make a special effort to send their collections in. If they have been collected at the school house and the teacher is absent from the district, perhaps the clerk has a key to the building. If so, the committee in charge, would like very much to have them sent.

GRAIN NOW AVAILABLE FOR POULTRY AND STOCK

Portland, Nov. 6.—The food administration has removed all restrictions on the use or sale of wheat for poultry or stock feeding. A ban was put on the use of wheat for such purposes soon after the food laws became effective. In a bulletin issued yesterday by M. H. Houser, second vice president of the food administration grain corporation, the repeal of the rule is announced.

The larger supply of wheat in this country and the good crop prospects for next year are held to be responsible for the easing up of the regulations, which apply to all parts of the United States.

Farmers and stockmen, however, are not expected to get much advantage from the new ruling, as with the government's fixed wheat price this cereal will cost much more than corn, oats, barley or other grains for stock feeding. The farmer, will find it more profitable to sell his wheat to the mills or the government, and buy coarse grains for his stock.

Somewhere in France there is an American boy fighting for you. Have you proved yourself worth his wonderful effort by finishing his socks on time?

HEAR THIS CALL from OUR HOME TOWN BOYS OVER THERE

LETTERS from our boys in the trenches and from the women in canteen and other war work, all bring to us the same message—SEND US NEWS FROM HOME.

World news is all right, but OUR BOYS want NEWS OF THIS TOWN. They want the home newspaper. Publishers are prevented from sending their papers free to anyone, even boys in the service. Consequently a national movement has been started by Col. William Boyce Thompson of New York, who is acting as President of the Home Paper Service of America to give the boys what they are calling for. Every community is joining the movement. Let us see that our boys are not forgotten.

Send to the publisher of this newspaper whatever amount of money you can—5 cents or $50.00. We will publish a list each week of those contributing, and the amounts contributed.

Every cent received will be used to send this paper to our boys at the front. If at the end of the war, there is any surplus, it will be turned over to the local Red Cross Committee.

There is no profit in this to the publisher—even in normal times, subscriptions are not sold at a profit. With war prices prevailing, and the high rate of postage on papers sent to France, our cost will scarcely be covered by our full subscription price.

Remember that over in France, some brave soldier or sailor from this town—perhaps even some splendid woman working within sound of the guns—is depending on you to "KEEP THE HOME LOVE KINDLED."

They are calling to YOU from "Over There" GIVE WHAT YOU CAN

Sad News for Mr. Able—E. E. Able today received the sad news of the death at Portland of his youngest brother, Alfred Able, who had been employed at the shipyards for several months. This is the second death in the Able family in a month, the father having died in October at the old home in southern Minnesota.
