THREE AMERICANS FIRST

With the American Forces in France, Oct. 10 .- (Corespondence of the Associated Press) .- It was three American privates who gave the cupied village of Thiaucourt the greatest thrill of their lives. For four years they had been waitingand then the Americans came.

When the three priva vance guard of swarms of other Americans in their wake-swung into the war-torn village of Thiaucourt not a soul was in the streets. But within a few minutes news spread that the Americans were there and in droves from cellars where they days and nights. And from other with the idea of giving up.

The offensive of the First American army, which wiped out the St. Mihiel salient, began on a Thursday morning and it was Saturday afternoon when the weary Americans reached Thiaucourt, hungry and fatigued from fast walking in their eagerness to keep pace with the fleeing Germans.

As the Americans poured into the village and the French realized more and more that again Thiaucourt had come into her own men stood in the streets and cried openly and women sat about on doorsteps and bits of wreckage caused by shells and wept until near exhaustion. And in the confusion the children cheered but even some of them, the older ones realizing what it all meant, cried too and kissed the hands of the officers

What food they had on hand the French turned over to the Americans the villagers insisting upon the Americans taking all they wanted of what they had. So in the streets and in the houses, some of them occupied only a few hours previously by the German officers and men, the Americans made themselves at home for a short breathing spell, and the French population of the village endeavored to satisfy the appetites of their deliverers.

KINNEY & TRUAX GROCERY QUALITY FIRST

From the time the Germans reach-Thiaucourt in September, 1914, until a few days after the village had been retaken by American troops the civilians were entirely without fresh meat of any kind excepting now and then a chicken or a rabbit which were raised in cellars without the knowledge of the Germans. All the cattle in the region of Thiaucourt were taken by the Germans, but two cows being left to furnish milk for babies.

ARIZONA MAN EARNS NAME 'SAUSAGE EATER'

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 7 .- The son of a German father and a Prussian at that, Lieut. Frank Luke has brought no great joy to the fatherland of his ancestors. He is rated s the second American ace and his proclivity for bringing down German observation balloons during night attacks has won for him the name of the "sausage eater." He has been so busy bringing down German balloons and airplanes he has not had time to write to his parents for more than a month.

Lieutenant Luke was born here and was educated in the Phoenix schools. He was employed in the Ajo mining camp when the United States entered the war. He tried to enter the navy but was prevented by illness and he attempted to enlist as an airplane mechanic. He was induced to try the flying end of this game and was trained at North TO ENTER THIAUCOURT game and was trained at North Island, San Diego, Cal., and at the ground school at Austin, Tex. He ground school at Austin, Tex. He sailed for France in May and has 14 balloons and eight airplanes to his credit since joining the overseas forces.

WORKING MAN MUST FIGHT, SAYS KANTENEFF

Moscow, Nov. 7 .- "Soviet Russia ers," recently declared Leo Kameneff, the Bolshevik leader named as ambassador to Austria who, held as a prisoner for 6 months by the Finnish white guards, has returned to Russia.

"We have ceased war making and will not be a toy in the hands of this or that imperialism," Kameneff declared to the Moscow soviet. "We are surrounded by an iron ring and the only salvation for us is to adhere to our original policy. The working man of Russia must fight for complete independence."

Discussing Norway and Sweden, where Kemeneff recently visited, he said, "They are neutral only as to this war and not neutral to socialistic Russia. We socialists have no allies, no friends and no neutrality."

FRANCHISE FOR DITCH CARRIES BY BIG VOTE

By an overwhelming vote Tuesday Gravity District Improvement Company's irrigation ditch. Seven of the eight precincts in the city only returned about 50 votes against the proposition. The other precinct, No. 8, failed to post returns on the vote. The voters undoubtedly took a wise course in the matter and the granting of the franchise means much for the future prosperity of this section Alternates-Luther Ruth and Earl of the Rogue river valley.

basis, as we have our trade established—no experimenting.

I learn that some parties were in the county last week explaining their company's operations. The fact is that the same company tried to break the market and lower the butter prices to 61 cents. You ask them—they cannot deny it. The Hazelwood Company has kept the price to what it is and we are paying 65

Producers can help themselves by sending butter fat to the company that has a market for all their goods and always pay the top prices.
