After the war.
After the war is over.
Alexander's back from Dixie.
Any old place the gang goes, I'll be there.
Are you from Dixie.
Cleopatra had a jazz band.
Down where the daisies grow.
Dream of a soldier boy.
For me and my gal.
For the two of us.
Good night; high, medium, low.
Hall, Hall, the gang's all here.
I'll return mother darling to you.
It's not your nationality, it's simply you.
K-k-katy.
Keep cool, the country's saving fuel.

THE NEED FOR $250,000,000

The first Y. M. C. A. drive was for 3 1/2 million dollars, the second for 35 million dollars, the third began for 170 million dollars, and now comes the urgent request to increase this amount to 250 million dollars. We can hardly keep back the question, "Why is so much needed?" Without in any way seeming to minimize the work of the other welfare organizations, each as important in its field, let us give a glance at the scope of the Y. M. C. A. work and the extent of the territory it covers.

The British government and nation take care of the Y. M. C. A. for the Tommies, but aside from that the United States provides the huts for all the rest of the allies. This means that not only in all the camps and cantonments in the United States but in France, in Italy, in Russia, and along the Serbian front the Y. M. C. A. carries its message of home and good cheer. To do this it must have ready at a moment's call all the necessary materials for a hut and its equipment. The Y. M. C. A. wherever possible provides its own transportation facilities, and has in use thousands of trucks and automobiles. No matter where the American soldier has gone, those at home have been gladdened by the sight of the now familiar red triangle on the stationery, and the comfort that this one thing has brought to the hearts of American mothers can not be measured. The Y. M. C. A. provides entertainments on an enormous scale. It has placed record orders for all kinds of athletic apparatus which is used free of charge by the soldiers back of the lines. It is carrying on an educational campaign that will increase enormously as soon as the war is over. It has a very extensive canteen service, and supplies the food and sweets at no profit to the organization. When a business has only expense and no income, and when it is planned on such a huge scale as the army Y. M. C. A., there must necessarily be an immense outlay to keep it running. There need be no fear of waste of funds, as the business men at the head of the organization are men who know how to handle big business. The Y. M. C. A. secretaries get only enough salary to pay their expenses while abroad and the families dependent upon them receive an allowance which will enable them to meet the family expenses. Money is made to go just as far as it can be stretched, and it is all spent for the good of the "boys over there." The war has come to an end, but the need of the army Y. M. C. A. will not end until the last Yank has come back home across the big pond. There is need of every cent that is being solicited and we in Josephine county can not fall down on any call at this stage of the game. Large gifts are absolutely necessary, and the United States Steel corporation has just made a record gift of $5,000,000 to the combined agencies. Grants Pass district, which comprises school district No. 7, is asked to raise $6,000. We did better than that on the first Red Cross drive, and we can do just as well now as then. There will be no greater satisfaction in the years to come than any of us can have, than to know that we also helped.

America is making a glorious record with its army, and everywhere the flower of our young manhood has spread the principles which have made it known as "the cleanest army in the world." Keep it so by keeping the hut fires burning.
T. P. CRAMER.

COTTON PRICE DROPS $10 PER BALE ON PEACE NEWS
New York, Nov. 13.—Cotton dropped $10 a bale in the market here today. Traders seemed unable to interpret the peace situation in its relation to the staple. The recession of 200 points for the January option was the maximum movement permitted by a rule adopted October 5, by the board of managers of the Cotton Exchange designated to prevent excessive fluctuations during any one day's trading.

GREAT AIR SERVICE PLANNED AFTER THE WAR

London, Oct. 20.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—"America will become within reach of England in a day and a half and the time will come when an Englishman in New York will see his London paper the morning after its publication," said Handley Page the airplane constructor, recently.

He prophesied that immediately on the declaration of peace it would be possible to begin an air service between Marseilles and London with a single stop at Paris for an overhaul and taking in gasoline. Mr. Page continued:

"Constantinople could be reached in 20 hours, Rome in 12 1/2 hours, and Marseilles in eight," he said.

"An 800 mile service could be run at a profit, both for mails and passengers, at a rate but little in excess of that at present in force."

"I base my calculations on the use of a medium-sized machine making non-stop flights of 400 miles. Each would carry 4,400 pounds of revenue-earning load. There would be first-class aerodromes at each end of the route, and another in the middle. Second-class aerodromes would be provided every 100 miles."
