FERRYDALE

J. L. Green, now of Grants Pass, was in our vicinity Monday.

Miss Beulah Hussey has been visiting friends in Ferrydale the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Griffin was calling on Mr. and Mrs. Price Sloan Thursday. Mr. Sloan is caring for the Gus Lind farms at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jes. Noble, of Wilderville, were visitors on Picket creek on Saturday and Sunday, visiting Mrs. Noble's sister, Mrs. Le-feld, spending Sunday at A. I. Hussey's.

Mrs. J. L. Green, of Grants Pass, spent Tuesday at Frank Morrison's. Ferrydale is a very busy place these days, farmers busy getting their crops in, lumber hauling still going on, and we hope to soon see the road graving commence, hoping our roads will be more passable this year.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Robertson are pleased with the arrival of a new son, November 6, at their home.

G. H. Griffin and family were visitors at Grants Pass Monday and were partakers of the celebration of peace terms.

Three of our young men, Hannie Neely, Dick Every and Clarence Emmerick were on the draft call for Monday, but are among those who will not get a chance to strike at the kaiser.

A. C. Ford has sprayed his orchard the past week for peach blight.

D. G. Robertson was through this neighborhood Saturday evening in behalf of the United War Work drive that is on at the present time.

Envelopes at the Courier Office.

FARMERS & DAIRYMEN

The war is over and a full surrender has been accomplished. Now is the time to look after your future business. Come in and bring your cream, or send it in to us. We can take care of your dairy products. We are not trying to get your trade by misrepresentation or slander, but by business-like methods. We guarantee you satisfaction in weights and tests. Our prices are always in the lead. We are here to give you satisfaction and invite you all to come in and give us a trial, and we will convince you that we are building up a business on a solid foundation.

THE SUPERMEN WHINE

Yes, they are "supermen," according to their own appraisal or themselves. Four years ago they were haughty, confident, and imbued with the belief that they were "the chosen people" to rule over the balance of the world. They started across Belgium and France. Their officers told them to "harden themselves," to steel their nerves against all pleas for mercy. They did so. The result:

A devastated country; cities turned to ashes; an enslaved people, thousands of whom were starved or beaten to death; hundreds of thousands of women and girls torn from their homes and ruined; babies' hands cut off; many men and women crucified by being nailed to the doors of their own homes; thousands of boys mutilated; industries, crops and food of all kinds destroyed until famine stalked in every nook and corner; the wounded in the hospitals blown to pieces, along with many Red Cross nurses; our soldiers treacherously killed after the enemy had raised his hands in feigned surrender and bleated "kamerad."

These are a few of the atrocities committed by the Boche, and as a final vicious thrust they gassed 2,000 women and children after the armistice had been signed. Latest reports state that they are still committing acts of violence.

In the face of all these crimes the Germans have shown a broad, yellow streak and are now asking President Wilson for aid—for food to keep them from starving. Yes, bleating for food after having destroyed everything within their reach. Such is the inglorious war the Huns have waged upon humanity, and they now beg for mercy.

When "our boys" come home they can, and will, tell us truthfully of unheard-of crimes by the hundreds—tales of punishment and barbarity that will make us shiver—yet in the face of all these truths we must, it seems, send food across to these people who have omitted none of the crimes in the annals of barbarity.

Let us trust that the starving Belgians, French, Poles, Armenians and other ravished nations whose homes have been drenched in blood receive the first aid. Then, if anarchy-torn Germany can be helped to her feet and peace once more brought to her domain, well and good.

BOLESHEVİK EFFRONTERY

The recent appeal of the Russian Bolshevik for an armistice with the allies is a supreme piece of effrontery—a cool display of nerve, to say the least.

Far from being a recognized belligerent at war with us, the Bolshevik element is an organization of wild-eyed visionaries, ignorant, and led by German-paid assassins sent off in an orgy of murder and violence against their own brothers, to wreck Russia—and the plot succeeded—thanks to William Hohenzollern. These German-controlled degenerates have spread a reign of terror through Russia compared to which the French revolution was a mild affair.

The better class of Russians, terror-stricken and at the mercy of the Bolsheviki, are now calling upon the allies for help, and at the same time the Bolsheviki have presented their armistice proposition to Wilson. It is the enlightened people of Russia that will receive aid—not the murderers.

As surely as Germany, the arch-conspirator, is facing her day of retribution, so surely will these willing tools who at her instigation are tearing their country to pieces meet their just desert.

Just as a reminder that Grants Pass is in one of the best parts of Oregon, a regular old toad-strangler visited this valley last night and this morning.

Bad news for democrats: The dispatches say Roosevelt is rapidly recovering his health.

It's now safe for Sweden and Spain to declare war against Germany.

JUSTICES OF PEACE AND CONSTABLES ELECTED

Elsewhere in this issue is published the table of the official Josephine county vote for state and county officers and the measures, the official canvass having been completed yesterday.

The vote for justices of the peace and constables shows the election of the following:

Justice of the Peace
Kerby—Frank Smith.
Merlin—D. W. Mitchell.
Wolf Creek—M. C. Davis.
Placer—N. F. Inman.
Slate Creek—Tie between Ree Morrison and Sam Stringer, each receiving two votes.

Murphy—Tie between L. W. Carlson and T. E. Gilmore, each receiving 3 votes.

Constable
Grants Pass district—J. P. Martin.
Slate Creek—Hannah Lovelace.
Selma—S. S. Dellinger.
Kerby—Charles Hart.
Waldo—Jo. Johnson.
Merlin—B. F. Seaton.
Lucky Queen—Wm. Lichtenberger.

Placer—Maude Epperly.
Murphy—Tie between L. M. Mitchell and Wm. Broyles, each receiving four votes.

Althouse—Tie between Ed. Trefethern, W. A. Trefren and Wm. Tycer, each receiving one vote.

Stock Raising at Large
Dimick district—For, 8; against, 43.

City of Grants Pass
The official returns show the election of the following:

Mayor—C. H. Demaray.
Councilmen—Ward 1, T. P. Cramer, 2 years; L. A. Launer, 4 years.
Ward 2, E. H. Balsiger, 2 years; C. F. Nutting, 4 years. Ward 3, Wm.

Bunch, 2 years; Chas. Burkhalter, 4 years. Ward 4, F. O. Wilcox, 2 years; S. M. Leonard, 4 years.

As in previous years there were many scattering votes in some cases showing absolute ignorance of the ballot and the right of franchise, and in other cases the vote being intended for a joke. This indiscriminate balloting, which in the election just past amounted to 139 votes causes an immense amount of extra work for the election boards, the canvassing board, the clerk, and everyone concerned, as well as slowing up the count on election night.
