THANKSGIVING

With the ending of the terrible struggle and days of strife that have darkened the world for four long years, every heart overflows with sincere thankfulness.

Humanity's greatest crusade has been successfully waged and gloriously won. The world has been delivered from the menace of the forces of evil and darkness, and will engage in giving thanks with the same fervor as did the Pilgrims who dedicated this day to their deliverance and freedom.

And what a feeling of pride comes to Americans here at home when we review the daring deeds of sacrifice and service of our brave boys who offered their all that justice and peace may be restored to all the world.

Let us give thanks that victory is ours—that our sacrifices have not been in vain—that our nation has been blessed with valorous sons. And for the boys over there, let us offer a prayer that ere another Thanksgiving dawns they will be safely home.
