GANG OF FIVE BOYS CHOOSE LIFE OF HOBO

George Morris, the 17-year-old boy who stole a watch from baggagemaster T. Y. Dean in this city Sunday, was brought back to this place last night by Sheriff Lewis, who went to Ashland after the young transgressor yesterday.

Young Morris is one of a gang of five boys who were "hoboling it" south. They arrived in Grants Pass Sunday and hung around most of the day. They came into town on the brake beams of a train, and after the Morris boy had stolen the watch they continued their journey south in true hobo fashion. At Ashland the Morris boy made a desperate attempt to escape, but as he ran around the train an officer reached out his long arms and folded the lad to his bosom. After a diligent search the missing watch was found, stuffed inside the boy's sock, near his shoetop.

This bunch of five lads, say the officers, appears to be well informed on how to "get about" and make their way through any and all difficulties. Unlike the Stipple boy who stole a bicycle and is today before the juvenile court, and who said no one was to blame for his bad actions, the Morris lad put up a tale that sounded crooked and was prone to lay his misdeeds to the influence of "bad boys" into whose company he fell. He is 17 years of age.

MEMBERSHIP TOTAL OVER 2,000 IN COUNTY

Every chapter in Josephine county has been heard from by today in the Red Cross Christmas roll call. The majority have reported more memberships than were received last year. A few have not completed the canvass, but are not stopping until the last adult has been solicited.

Posters are appearing in the business houses today announcing that "We Belong 100 per cent Strong." The estimate for the county was 2,000 memberships, but already there are more than that reported, but the canvass will be a complete success only when every adult in the county, who is able in any way to subscribe, is wearing a button.

Solicitors are on the streets today and this evening to pick up any memberships that have by any means been missed heretofore.

Every American wearing a button on Christmas day is the request that comes from headquarters at Washington.

All kinds of Commercial Printing at the Courier Office.

Iron Gate Headquarters—

M. L. Opydyke lost his iron gate on Halloween night and a few days ago he advertised a reward for its return. Since that time he has learned the whereabouts of dozens of iron gates and also secured his own. One was on a telephone pole, another on a roof, others in vacant lots and still others leaning against sundry barns. Mr. Opydyke has made a list, catalogued and card indexed, for the convenience of those who lost iron gates.

Mrs. Russell Drake Dies—

J. D. Drake on Saturday received a wire from his son, Russell G. Drake, stating that he had been released from quarantine and discharged from the service. On Sunday he received another wire stating that his son's wife had died early Sunday morning at the home of her parents in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Drake were married five days before the U. S. entered the war and Mr. Drake was stationed with his battery while Mrs. Drake remained with her parents.

BOY STARTS OUT ON THE CROOKED PATH

Willie Stipple, aged 15 years, has been working on a farm near this city. Recently he saw a chance to steal a bicycle from Fred Fairchild, a near neighbor, so mounting the wheel he started on his way to Crescent City. He made that city in fine shape, but the law reached out and got him and yesterday he was in Sheriff Lewis' hands here at the courthouse.
