AT THE MOVIES

An Appreciation of "My Cousin"
The following letter which was received by the Famous Players Co., producers of "My Cousin" is only one of the hundreds of letters of congratulation that poured in.

Washington, Nov. 26, 1918.
Mr. Jerome Beatty,
Care Famous Players' Co.,
485 Fifth Ave., New York City.
My Dear Mr. Beatty: I want to thank you for your kindness in permitting the National Press club to show for the first time before any audience Enrico Caruso's wonderful film, "My Cousin."

Three hours before the show started the auditorium of the Press club was full and we had to stand people up from that time on. Some of Washington's most representative citizens were present, and I know that it would have done you good to have seen Dr. Harvey Wiley enjoying the picture. He certainly was keenly interested in it. Representative La Guardia, the congressman who has just returned from fighting in Italy, was another guest of the evening.

Of the picture itself, I cannot speak in words of too high praise. Caruso's acting is wonderful, proving conclusively to my mind that he has a future before him in silent drama that will equal, if not surpass, his wonderful past in grand opera. I never have seen a better filmed picture.

Cordially yours,
(Signed) Labert St. Clair,
Assistant Director of Publicity
This feature will be shown at the Joy Theater Sunday and Monday with a special Sunday matinee.
