BEET TOP SILAGE KILLS DRAFT HORSES IN UTAH

Salt Lake City, Mar. 10.—Utah farmers this winter began to feed beet top ensilage to horses, and, according to R. W. Hoggan, state livestock inspector, the result has been fatal to the animals. He was called recently to a farm in Box Elder county, this state, where eight big draft horses which had been fed silage beet tops had died. A post mortem examination disclosed that the animals had been poisoned.

The horses had suffered, according to Dr. Hoggan, with laryngitis and gastro-enteritis. The mucous membrane had become detached, so that the horses were unable to swallow food or drink, resulting in paralysis of the throat and death. Dr. Hoggan has advised Utah farmers not to use beet tops as silage.

MRS. ERNEST PRUITT RUN DOWN BY AUTO

Mrs. Ernest Pruitt, 25 years old, whose husband is a member of the Pruitt and Hittison Automobile company was run down by a car driven by W. A. Crane at the corner of Riverside and Main streets Saturday afternoon and received serious injuries from which it is believed she has a fair chance to recover. Mrs. Pruitt was crossing the street from the Gates store to the Hubbard corner and passed in front of the Crane car which came to a stop. Hurrying on Mrs. Pruitt apparently caught sight of another car coming south on Riverside and bewildered she darted back directly in front of the first car which had started slowly on its way. Although Crane jammed on his emergency brake, the pavement was very slippery and the front wheels passed over the woman's body dragging her 15 or 20 feet. C. E. and Bill Gates with their company employes rushed to her assistance and she was carried into Gates' store, a hurry call being put in for the ambulance. Dr. M. C. Barber was first on the ground and the unfortunate woman was hurried to the Medford Sanitarium and her injuries examined. It was found she had suffered the fracture of three ribs, a severe laceration of the arm and minor bruises. But what causes serious concern is evidence of internal injuries. Last night Mrs. Pruitt was resting as comfortably as could be expected, however, and unless complications set in within the next two or three days her ultimate recovery is expected—Medford Sun.

Ernest Pruitt's parents reside at Merlin, and the family went to Medford on this morning's train.
