Medford Has Rabbit Roast—
After weeks of comparative inactivity the fire department responded to three alarms yesterday, two of the blazes being caused by flue fires, and the third by the explosion of a lamp in an incubator. The latter fire caused the only damage and roasted to a turn a number of rabbits and chickens. Two of the fires were on Beatty street.—Medford Tribune.

A Street Attraction—
Two Fordson tractors driven down the street today attracted quite a crowd of curious people. One of the tractors was driven by Clarence Winetroot and was followed by another tractor, trailing two Oliver plows—the plows elevated, of course. The tractors when in "high" have good speed. These are the first Fordsons brought to the city and can be seen at the Winetroot hardware store.

TONIGHT and TOMORROW

BIG DOUBLE BILL

Lila Lee

in "Such a Little Pirate"

A regular old-style pirate yarn, but with a very modern damsel right in the nub of it. There's a villain called Bad-Eye who tries to steal the map showing where the treasure is—but seeing that the map is tattooed on a human shoulder!—well, that's the plot, come and see it unravelled. And don't forget the youngsters.

Fatty Arbuckle

in "The Cook"

TO MR. AND MRS. PUBLIC:
LISTEN, PEOPLE!
Strong men will break down and weep as "FATTY" seductively executes his 1918 version of Mary Garden's fascinating SALOME DANCE.
"FATTY" also offers to Joy patrons a course in artistic SPAGHETTI EATING that should prove invaluable to those wishing to enjoy this ELUSIVE food in public. All in all, "THE COOK" is a "feast" of laughter, served in a thousand hilarious courses.
