MOVIE STAR TO APPEAR IN PERSON AT THE JOY

Princess Mona Darkfeather, the famous Indian photoplay star, will appear at the Joy theatre on Tuesday. Princess Darkfeather has appeared in more photoplays than any other actress in the profession, numbering over 500 in her eight years experience on the screen. She has been identified as star with the original Bison Co., also with Selig, Universal, Kalem and Mutual companies, besides producing independently. Princess Darkfeather will wear an Indian buckskin dress made by herself and containing over 500 rattlesnake rattlers with a combined age of 3,000 years, and which took over three years to collect; besides this wonderful and novel dress, she wears numerous silver bracelets given to her by several very prominent Indian chiefs. This is the first personal appearance of a photoplay actress in Grants Pass and will be of unusual interest to movie fans.

Doug. Fairbanks

"He Comes Up Smiling"

To make a picture like this you have to have Douglas Fairbanks, a saucy little canary, a few automobiles, half a dozen square miles of scenery, a bunch of human beings. Mix well and then let the valuable pet canary get away.

If you ever tried to teach a canary to learn the rules of any game, you will have some idea what a scream this picture is. Oh birdie, birdie, what a lot you were responsible for!

Not Measured In Dollars and Cents

The full measure of a bank account is not merely in the number of dollars and cents you succeed in getting together. The full measure is found in the inculcated during the time the account is accumulating. This bank solicits the opportunity to co-operate with you in accumulating both the account and the habit.

HABITS OF THRIFT
