FANNIE ANDREWS, AGED PIONEER, DIED SUNDAY

Mrs. Fannie Andrews, aged pioneer of Josephine county and widow of Moses Andrews, died at her home Sunday morning, April 6, aged 73 years 11 months and 11 days. Mrs. Andrews, who has been a resident of Grants Pass for nearly 30 years, has been living alone in her little home on Eleventh street, neighbors and church friends visiting her frequently. A few days ago she had a severe fall which severely injured her and she was unable to rally from the shock. Mrs. Andrews has been a life long member of the Baptist church. She is survived by a nephew, Melvin Andrews, of this place, and two sisters, Mrs. J. C. Smiley, of Subiaco, Wyo., and Mrs. Ann Radloff, of Stranberry, Mo.

The funeral arrangements will be delayed until the sisters are communicated with.

MINISTERS OF VALLEY IN QUARTERLY MEETING

The regular quarterly meeting of the Rogue River Valley Ministerial association, of which Rev. J. K. Ballie, of Phoenix, is president, and Rev. J. E. Walbeck, of Medford, is secretary, convened today in the Newman M. E. church with the following members present: Rev. J. K. Ballie, Presbyterian, Phoenix; Rev. J. E. Walbeck, South Methodist, Medford; Rev. C. F. Koehler, Presbyterian, Ashland; Rev. Ferris, Baptist, Ashland; Rev. L. Myron Boozer, Presbyterian, Medford; Rev. L. F. Belknap, Community church, Central Point; Dr. Carlos, Methodist, Medford; Rev. S. T. Spriggs, Baptist, Medford; together with the local pastors.

Following the routine business the program consisted of an able address by Rev. Mr. Ferris, of Ashland. Mr. Ferris discussed the subject "The Greatest Need of a Minister," and urged a better appreciation of the relation between the minister's spiritual power and the necessities growing out of the present world situation. Following this address a discussion, in which all members participated, emphasized a many-sided conception of the problem.

The association adjourned and had lunch with the Chamber of Commerce, and spent the afternoon with friends.

The next meeting will be held in Ashland.
