Good Slogan.

An imposing cemetery was opened in a young and thriving town in the Middle West. The mayor, who had charge of the laying out of the grounds, was puzzled for an appropriate inscription to be placed over the gate. Riding along in his car one day he was cogitating over different holy texts, which were not entirely satisfactory; so he explained his difficulty to his chauffeur, an intensely practical man. Without hesitation the chauffeur suggested:
"We have come to stay."—Harper's Magazine.

Choice of Voices.

Edith—Mr. Boreleigh? Oh, dear! I'll have Ninette tell him I'm out.
Alice—Won't the still, small voice reproach you?
Edith—Maybe, but I'd much rather hear the still, small voice than Mr. Boreleigh's.—Boston Evening Transcript.

COMING EVENTS

When you are overworked, feel listless or languid, or when you can't sleep or eat, better take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, livens you up, purifies the blood, soothes and regulates the stomach, makes you eat and sleep. A real Spring Medicine, 35c. Tea or Tablets. Sabin's Drug Store.—Adv.

Mint Jell

Try Mint Jiffy-Jell with roast lamb or cold meats. It is vastly better than mint sauce. Try Jiffy-Jell desserts with their real fruit flavors in essence form, in vials. Each is so rich in condensed fruit juice that it makes a real fruit dainty. Yet they cost no more than old-style gelatine desserts.

H. S. RAISING FUNDS FOR LIBERTY BOND PAYMENT

One of the most clever programs of the year will be given at the local high school Friday night at 8 o'clock. All proceeds to go toward the payment of the high school liberty bonds.

Selections by the high school orchestra and a two-act play, "A Box of Monkeys," will be among the attractions of the evening.

This play is a series of laughs from start to finish. A small admission fee is charged.

TAKILMA

We are sorry to lose our former merchant, G. B. Fife, and family. They are moving to Grants Pass for the time being.

Takilma has come to life again with a big dance on Saturday, April 19. Remember the good times we had in times gone by and the good feeds that Mrs. Savage gave us? They will be just the same only better.

Harry Messenger has purchased the G. B. Fife and has taken charge of it and the postoffice.

Mrs. Alice M. Bacon was out from Grants Pass to visit our schools and was very proud of the progress that we had made in our district.

Miss Wilmot V. Savage and Earl Cade were united in marriage recently; also Miss Mary Wilson and Joe Woodcock. Takilma friends wish them all a long and happy life.

The Del Norte Claim Holders association has commenced work at their wagon road with a small force of men who are getting things in shape for a large crew which will be put to work in a few days.

GREAT INTEREST SHOWN AT CHURCH SERVICES

The Boy Scouts will be guests tonight at the evangelistic services being conducted at the Church of Christ. They will attend in a body, led by Scoutmaster Macduff, and will demonstrate some of their regular work. Mr. Macduff, who has been so liberal in giving his time and ability in building up a Boy Scout troop of which Grants Pass can justly be proud, will speak to the parents concerning the work of the boys' organization.

The attendance at these services is growing each night and the interest is keen. The daily publication, "Ignition," is receiving the commendations of the community.

Mr. Roberts, the song leader, is pleasing the people with his happy personality. There are additions at every service. The subject tonight will be "American Patriotism."

Here's a New Kink—Ask your barber to apply "Persian Secret" to your face before he puts on the second lather—then apply the lather and note the difference in face feeling after he's through—as well as while he is at it. If you shave yourself and try this, you will be delighted. If you go over the second time use "Persian Secret" in place of water, it will sure give you a pleasant look. 38

Newspaper of 1822—Mrs. E. G. Harris is the possessor of an old newspaper dated August 1, 1822, which was among the effects of her sister, the late Cella Doerner. The paper is Vol. 1, No. 5 of the Independent Press, published at Cincinnati, Ohio. It has four pages of four columns to a page and instead of containing current news it publishes lengthy communications, editorials, correspondence and poetry, together with advertising. Mrs. Harris proposes to send the paper to a relative in the newspaper business in Cincinnati, to whom it will be of great interest.

Why Be a Mere Dancer—When the opportunity is here to be a real dancer, Mrs. Goettsche will start a class soon. If interested phone No. 383-R or call 704 D. 38
