LLOYD GEORGE'S PLEA

"Cannot the people wait until we have finished our work, instead of always wanting to judge our intentions?" asks Lloyd George in a recent interview. "This conference had to meet and discuss things under conditions unprecedented in history. All eyes are turned toward it, and what is more grave, all ears are glued to the keyhole. Enemy ears tremble with joy when they detect some hesitation. Friendly ears hear half-confused rumors which are peddled far and quickly.

"The day does not pass but what some false news here and there takes its flight. Nevertheless, no day passes but that we in silent deliberation feel approaching nearer the great aim, and experience for each other more esteem, confidence and affection.

"Let public opinion wait a few days. It will then be able to pronounce on facts, not rumors."

This patently honest plea of the British premier deserves hearing. It is quite possible that there has been too much unthinking condemnation of the peace conference lately—that, considering its enormous load of responsibility and difficulty, it may have been making pretty good progress right along.

It would be far easier to grant this, however, if the public were given more reliable information about peace conference activities, direct from headquarters. And if it had not been for the excessive censorship established, the diplomats at Paris would have had less cause to complain of the harmful rumors circulated as news, and the world-public would probably have remained friendly and sympathetic instead of turning from admiration to criticism.

It is pretty late in the day to change the policy; still, the wisest thing the conference could do, for the short time remaining, would be to let down the bars and give us real news.

LUMBER PRODUCTION PROBLEMS

Western lumbermills are marketing their product at $2.80 per thousand below cost of production.

While wages and material costs remain at present figures there is no way out of the woods but to raise prices.

Figures from 24 typical west coast sawmills show cost of production for February was $25.45 per thousand feet

Average selling price was $22.65, and there will have to be advance in selling price if labor is to be kept employed.

The price of southern pine lumber produced with cheaper labor on longer hours, sells in the market $6 per thousand above western lumber.

Federal price-fixing set the figure for fir lumber at $2 per thousand

Look at this waffle recipe

It's an exceptionally good one for making waffles, too.

- 1/2 pound of flour.
- 2 ounces of salt.
- 2 eggs.
- 1/2 pint of milk.
- 2 ounces of butter.
- 4 level teaspoonfuls of RYZON.

You can depend on the flour, the eggs, the butter and the salt always behaving in about the same way.

But the baking powder—that's another story.

If it's good, it means success—and a delicious breakfast. Everybody happy!

If it's poor stuff it will make a mess of things, perhaps cause a complete loss of the other ingredients and spoil the whole morning for the whole family.

That's why we wouldn't care to recommend a baking powder unless we knew all about it, unless we had tested it ourselves.

We do know RYZON and we urge you to try it because we know it will make you our friend.

It's always dependable; always of uniform high leavening power; always pure.

We also want you to get to know the RYZON Baking Book. Over a million of them are in use already in American homes. Ask us about it.

below southern pine, and a $4 advance is claimed to be justified to keep labor employed on the Pacific coast.

THAT BURNING THIRST

W. A. Blossom, service inspector for the Pullman company for the U. S. railroad administration, declares that all saloons in Siakiyou county, California, may be closed on the Southern Pacific line during train time. Drunkenness and "hog-like" actions of many of the passengers as soon as the train strikes "wet territory" is the cause of the disturbance. Blossom asserts that on no other western railway line was there a condition that approached that at Hornbrook. The condition, he says, is a disgrace to the passenger service of the railroad. Before south-bound trains come to a full stop at Hornbrook passengers with a burning thirst leap from the cars and make a wild scramble for the saloons.

Contrary to reports received from the peace league at Paris Saturday evening, the league did not adopt the Japanese amendment on racial equality, but the Japs' cherished hopes long that line were shattered and California scored.

been made, and even then not to go to war with a state which accepts the award or recommendation; (e), to regard a state which has broken the covenant as having committed an act of war against the league, to break off all economic and other relations with it, and to allow free passage through their territories to the troops of those states which are contributing armed force on behalf of the league.

"The council is to recommend what amount of force, if any, should be supplied by the several governments concerned, but the approval of the latter is necessary. (States not members of the league will be invited to accept the obligations of the league for the purpose of particular disputes, and if they fail to comply may be forced.) (f), Not to consider any treaty binding till it has been communicated to the league, which will then proceed to publish it, to admit the right of the assembly to advise the reconsideration of treaties and international conditions which do not accord with present needs, and to be bound by no obligations inconsistent with the covenant.

"A state which breaks its agreements may be expelled from the league by the council.

"4. The covenant does not affect the validity of international engagements, such as treaties of arbitration or regional understandings like the Monroe Doctrine, for securing the maintenance of peace.

"5. The former German colonies and the territories of the Ottoman empire are to be administered in the interests of civilization by states which are willing to be mandatories of the league, which will exercise a general supervision.

"6. The member states accept certain responsibilities with regard to labor conditions, the treatment of atives, the white slave traffic, the opium traffic, the arms traffic with uncivilized and semi-civilized countries, transit and trade conditions, public health and Red Cross societies.

"7. The league is recognized as the central body interested in co-ordinating and assisting international activities, generally.

"8. Amendments to the covenant require the approval of all the states on the council and a simple majority of those in the assembly. States which signify their dissent from amendments thus approved are not bound by them, but, in this case, cease to be members."

Bronchial Coughs—

For quick relief from wearing bronchial coughs that "hang on and weaken, for thick wheezy breathing, irritated throat and air passages, for sleep-disturbing night coughs, take Foley's Honey and Tar.

In it, you quickly get the curative influence of the pine tar and other healing ingredients, together with the mollifying and laxative effect of honey.

Foley's Honey and Tar is also good for croup, whooping cough, tickling throat and hoarseness. It does not contain morphine, chloroform or any other injurious drug. Do not accept a substitute.

"My wife contracted a severe cold which finally developed into bronchial trouble. She coughed almost continually. The remedies we tried gave only temporary relief. I happened to pick up one of Foley's Family Almanacs and as a result, purchased a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. She had not used half the bottle when her cough began to slack up, and she could rest so much better at night. She continued using it until she used 7 bottles, which effected a permanent cure. Yours respectfully, W. S. Bailey, Lancaster, Ky.
