Returned Soldiers Reception—

Because of interference with services previously arranged, incident to the Lenten season, the Red Cross committee having the reception and dance in charge, have decided to postpone it. The exact date to be decided and announced within a few days. It is earnestly desired that all may take part in this welcoming home of the soldiers who have so faithfully served their country. So please bear this in mind and cancel all other engagements for the date when it is again arranged. (Signed) Committee.
