A CORRECTION

Due to an oversight in the Courier office yesterday, there was an error in the notice given by Judge Gillette in regard to the entertainment planned in honor of the returned soldiers, to be given at the courthouse. The notice should have read as follows:

"Mr. O. S. Blanchard,
Grants Pass, Oregon.

Dear Sir:

Judge Gillette requests me to advise you that the county court will not permit the courthouse to be used for dancing at the reception to be given by the American Red Cross to the returned soldiers and sailors.

Yours truly,
E. L. COBURN,
Clerk."

Minute Men's Service—

The Methodist minute men will have entire charge of tonight's Passion week service at Newman M. E. church at 8 o'clock. The service will be unique. J. M. Isham, chairman of the minute men will preside and will sing a solo. There will be a quartette number by Messrs. Isham, Zimmerman, Wible and Martin. Invocation by N. E. Townsend. Five-minute addresses as follows: "The Centenary in a Nutshell," by Eclus Pollock; "The Centenary and Prayer," by J. G. Imel; "What If All Church Members Tithed?" by Geo. Sabin; "The Centenary and the Negro," by Jas. Martin; "Modern Industrialism and Christianity," by E. L. Coburn; "The Christian Cure for Bolshevism," by S. H. Baker. All are invited.

TO THE PUBLIC

Editor Courier:

In your issue of April 16th you print a letter to O. S. Blanchard from E. L. Coburn, the county clerk, and by the omission of two words put a construction on the letter that is misleading to the public. The letter as printed says that the county court "will not permit the reception to be given by the American Red Cross to the returned soldiers and sailors." The two words omitted were "dancing at" and should have read "will not permit 'dancing at' the reception, etc."

The last entertainment given by the Red Cross in the courthouse was last September, at which there was dancing and vaudeville stunts and there was much damage done to the building and furniture. In fact considerable damage was done and it cost quite a bit to repair this damage. At the meeting of the court in October an order was issued barring dancing and vaudeville in the building. That order was issued by the old county court, the present county court having nothing to do with it. There is no objection to receptions, public speaking, banquets in the basement or like public gatherings being held in the courthouse.

Owing to a misconception being put on the order of the county court last October there has been considerable comment and at the minstrel show of the Elks on the evening of April 16th one of the end men made a caustic, sarcastic and an unwarranted joke (?) for which he was not responsible, but which was inspired by someone else to vent their vindictiveness by misrepresentation through one who was a stranger and not acquainted with the question at issue.

The county court is not alone in this matter, but the question has been taken up with many prominent citizens and taxpayers and they were of the same opinion as the county court—that dancing should be eliminated from the courthouse entertainments.

C. G. GILLETTE.
