DENY RUMOR THAT GAS WILL BE TAKEN OUT

The following letter has just been received by Geo. H. Dorman, local manager for the Oregon Gas & Electric company, from the gas company's head office in San Francisco. The letter should set at rest the anxiety of those who have been told that the gas company has been planning on taking the gas out of Grants Pass on July 1, due to a reduction in the number of customers since the raise in gas rates:

"We are in receipt of your favor of April 21st, regarding your conversation with the editor of the Grants Pass Daily Courier, in which he advises you that there are rumors around the city that the Gas Company is going to discontinue operations after July 1st, and we are at a loss as to how such an unfounded rumor could be circulated, as we have not authorized anyone to circulate such a rumor.

"It is our intention to continue operations in Grants Pass as long as the citizens of Grants Pass will continue to use gas and while we have never made any money by operating the plant at Grants Pass, still we are at all times willing to supply them service as long as they continue to patronize us and cooperate with us.

"We thank you for calling this matter to our attention and would ask that you kindly place this before the public whenever you have occasion to do so."

SYRIAN PRINCESS TO APPEAR IN GRANTS PASS

Descendant of a long line of princesses of ancient Syria and proud of her pure Semitic race, daughter of the people who spoke the ancient Syriac of Biblical days, Princess Rahme Halder, native of the Holy Land is spending a few days in Grants Pass and on Sunday and Monday evenings, April 27 and 28, will appear at the Newman Methodist church. The direct occasion of her visit is in connection with a tour which she is making in this country since the San Francisco exposition, acquainting Americans, wherever possible, of the knowledge concerning the social and political conditions of her people—the Syrians. Her topic on Sunday evening at the regular hour of worship will be "Glimpses of Palestine." Her appearance in rich native costumes gives her story a unique setting, making an entertainment that will linger long in the minds of her auditors.

Monday evening at the same church at 8:15 o'clock, Princess Rahme will present her own dramatization of the old Biblical story of "Naman the Leper." It tells how the early Syrian people were turned from the worship of Baal to the worship of the true God of Israel and the part the Hebrew captive maid played in bringing about this great change.

With her Princess Halder has brought part of her wardrobe—gowns that have been in her family for more than a century. They are of Royal Damascus blue satin, hand made by native girls. They are elaborately embroidered in pure gold and each design has its own poetic significance.

The Princess will be ably assisted by her traveling companion, Miss Lucille Burgess who will render the quaint Oriental music both Syrian and Egyptian.

SNIPE SHOOTERS ARE HAVING GREAT HARVEST

Paris, Apr. 25.—By no one will the departure of the American soldiers from Paris be more keenly felt than by the humble "mogottiers"—the pickers-up of cigar stubs and cigarette ends. This has been a golden time for them, and "Papa Cinquante," who is the recognized boss of the trade and employs some thirty pickers, replies disdainfully when folks grumble to him about the scarcity of tobacco.

"There's always tobacco where Americans are," he says. "My men follow them up. Fine fellows. They smoke good stuff, and, what's better, more, they just chew their cigars and throw away half of them. That's where we gather in our little harvest. The quality of 'my tobacco' has gone up several degrees," and he grinned.

"Just now business is fine," he went on. "People are beginning to sit outside the cafes again, and my men pick up all the fag ends on the sidewalk. Another squad cleans up the music hall lounges early in the morning. People smoke more than ever."
