Chautauqua Guarantors--

Mr. McFadden, representative of the Ellison-White Company, will be in town next Wednesday evening and it is necessary for him to meet with all the guarantors. Mrs. J. E. Hair, secretary. 58

Fire Was a Smudge--

The fire department was called out last evening about 8:30, but the blaze proved to be a small one. F. L. Coon was burning some rubbish in the yard at his home and someone, perhaps thinking it a real conflagration, turned in an alarm. Mr. Coon, who is a voluntary member of the fire department, was doing a marathon to the fire station when he met the fire wagon breaking the speed limit getting to his home.
