Bobby Pelouze Is Star—

Bobby Pelouze of Eagle Point, was again an athletic hero last week when he pitched the Stanford university baseball club to a 5-2 victory over the University of California team, allowing only five hits. Of Stanford's seven hits one was made by Pelouze, who was extolled in the San Francisco papers for his masterly pitching and all around game. It was the first time for years that Stanford won the baseball championship over the U. of C.—Medford Tribune.

Bible school of the Church of Christ met in a very interesting session. The interest in the Bible study work is growing continually, there being 43 present last evening. For the workers conference, Mrs. Thrasher, the Bible school superintendent, presented a program whereby 12 different teachers presented as many different methods of teaching. In the report for April it was stated that the average attendance was 175 per Sunday.
