SOCIETY VS. BOLSHEVISM

Pages and pages and whole sections with illustrations in the big metropolitan papers produce some of the tendency toward bolshevism in our country.

In a democratic country it is injecting a subtle poison of discontent to parade too much the doings of the so-called society set before the working masses.

A San Francisco daily shows a society woman going for a week end at the beaches in a seven thousand dollar limousine holding a three thousand dollar dog on her lap.

Then there is a long eulogistic account of her appearance and her diamonds and even descriptions of her laces and lingerie, and there are pages of such stuff.

In the days before the French revolution the kings paraded their wealth and dazzling social functions while the multitudes toiled to earn the royal revenues.

Is the effect on the human mind any different today, and is humanity any less prone to exaggerate the evils of a wasteful social aristocracy in our own day?

Industrial peace and contented millions of working people in our large cities would be ensured with far greater certainty if the society pages were a little less conspicuous.

According to H. Bayard Swope, special Paris correspondent for the New York World, five omissions are conspicuous in the league of nations covenant, namely: No prohibition of submarines, no definition of the freedom of the seas, no provision for the codification or even for sanction of international law, no requirement for the destruction of the German fleet, and no delimitation of Japanese supremacy in China. Germany, alone, is bound to not build or employ undersea boats.

AMERICAN PUSH TOO SWIFT FOR ENGLISH

London, May 5.—Yankee enterprise triumphed when the city of Birmingham, planning to replace its street car rails invited bids for material. An American obtained the contract, although two British firms asked for it, and protests have been so numerous that the municipal government issued an official statement.

One of the British bidders, it was explained, agreed to begin delivering 50 tons a week in April but would not consent to a penalty clause for non-delivery; the other promised 1,200 tons within twenty weeks. The firm in the United States agreed to complete delivery by the end of May and quoted a lower price than either of the British manufacturers. The price and the fact that the authorities were anxious to complete the work this year were the influencing factors in favor of the American bidder.

GRANTS PASS TO SEE GENUINE BASEBALL

Plans are being made to have a series of twilight baseball games here this season beginning next Tuesday, May 13. There have been efforts made to revive the Sunday school twilight league, and other efforts to have a team to represent the town in games with other southern Oregon towns. The present intention is to unite all local baseball talent in a short series of games, and if the interest warrants to pick the town team from the players developed thereby.

The players of the town have been divided into three teams, which, for convenience, may be designated "Merchants," "Mechanics," and "Professional Men," with Roscoe Bratton, H. H. Pernoll and E. L. Coburn, as the respective captains. The teams are as follows:

Merchants

R. E. Bratton, James Lium, T. E. Gilmore, Gordon Bradford, Howard Fallin, Claud Smith, Martin Riggs, Chas. Adair, Chas. E. Moore, Vernon Coburn.

Mechanics

H. H. Pernoll, Fred Collins, Allen Underwood, H. Faubion, E. G. Steiger, Harry Edgerton, Donald Kearns, Elvis Blevins, Joe Galvin, H. H. Bush.

Professional Men

E. L. Coburn, James Martin, C. R. Drake, L. Patterson, Gale Smith, Robert Whipple, Dean Warren, Russell Wood, Rodney Calvert, Earl Pittinger.

All other baseball players and fans are cordially invited to ally themselves with one of these teams. The various classes represented by the teams are urged to support their respective teams in every possible manner.

The baseball field at the High school campus has been offered for use, as the purpose is simply to aid the community by furnishing a clean and interesting sport. The schedule is as follows:

- May 13—Merchants vs. Mechanics.
May 16—Merchants vs. Professional Men.
May 20—Mechanics vs. Professional Men.
May 23—Mechanics vs. Merchants.
May 27—Professional Men vs. Merchants.
May 29—Professional Men vs. Mechanics.

METHODISTS HAVE JOB OF THEIR OWN IN EUROPE

New York, May 5.—Twelve villages on the battlefields of Chateau Thierry, where United States soldiers and marines won undying fame by stopping the German drive on Paris at its spearhead early last summer, have been "adopted" for reconstruction work by the American Methodist Episcopal church. It was announced today by the Methodist centenary committee. Supplies will sail from New York in the now famous Methodist mission ship, which leaves shortly.

For the time being, Methodist churches in the Chateau Thierry region will devote none of their efforts to evangelistic propaganda, but will concentrate on physical and moral reconstruction, it is said.

NEW ZEALANDERS HAVE VISIONS OF YELLOW PERIL

Wellington, N. Z., May 6.—Sir J. Allen acting premier, in a statement as quoted by Reuter's correspondent, declared that he viewed developments in the Pacific with some alarm. It was difficult, he said, to discover why Japan wanted the Marshall Islands, unless she wished to dominate the Pacific.
